The Anatomy of Deep Deliverance – Part 2

When a problem has a weak foundation, you can dismiss it easily. But if the foundation is solid and deep, it requires effort

We will continue with the Anatomy of Deep Deliverance which we started last edition. I read again from Daniel 2:22, “He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him.” Like I explained last edition, certain things in this our world are deep and some are surface. Certain troubles are surface while certain troubles are very deep. Like we teach in Mountain of Fire and Miracles Ministries, whenever a believer comes across a problem, any problem at all, the first thing they should visualize, and the first thing your mind should go to quickly, is a tree.

A tree has roots. A tree has a stem. A tree has branches. A tree has leaves, and sometimes, a tree has fruit. When a battle is raging and you battle the stem, you battle the branches, you battle the leaves, you battle the fruit, and you ignore the root, you obtain partial deliverance, temporary deliverance, or surface deliverance. This is because you are yet to get to the root of the matter. This is a very serious situation.

It is like seeing cobwebs in the house and you keep clearing the cobwebs. You do not care where the spiders are. Get rid of the spiders and the cobwebs will cease. Let the spiders remain alive and you will continue to clear cobwebs. When you work on the root of a thing, you obtain complete or deep deliverance.

Jesus told us that parable in Matthew 7:24-27. A man built his house on sand. Another built his own on the rock. The wind came, the storms came, and they blew on the one that was on the sand. It fell flat. Why? The foundation was not solid. It was not deep. But when the wind and storm blew on the one on the rock, it stood firm because the foundation was solid. It is the same way when a problem has a weak foundation, you can dismiss it easily. But if the foundation is solid and deep, it requires effort.

A man was by the beach and he noticed that on that beach all plants were dead. Everything there was dead. There was no vegetation, except for one plant that was growing on the beach. He was puzzled and curious. Anytime the waves of the sea came, the plant would go down. When the water went back to the sea, it rose up again. He said, "What kind of plant is this? All plants here are dead. What is the reason behind this?" Being a scientist, he decided to let his curiosity get to work.

So he went to this plant and tried to uproot it, but he could not. He tried with all his strength but he could not. So he started digging and digging. He then found out that the root of this plant went 18 feet down below. That is why it was not possible for the waves of the sea to get rid of it. It is the same way when there is a situation that has those deep roots. Ice cream prayers, comfortable deliverance, just talking and talking, and primary school fasting will not address it because it is strong.

Human beings have different kinds of problems. Sometimes, when people give testimonies, instead of the testimonies to encourage some people, it gets them more depressed. A testifier says, "O I give glory to God, my husband ran away and came back." And another person says, "It's because you have a husband that he could run away. I don't have any."

"I have done everything they asked me to do. Nothing is working. O God,

Many are crying beloved,
"When will it be my turn to share testimonies?"

why me? Are you not there? Did you not say, 'No evil shall befall you'? Did you not say 'The enemies that come against you shall flee'? Did you not say no weapon formed against me shall prosper? Did you not say, 'Thou shall decree a thing and it shall be established'? Why is the decree coming out but nothing is established? Were you not the one that wrote, 'Behold I give unto you power to tread upon serpents and scorpions'? Were you not the one that said, 'Thy feet shall be as iron and as your days shall your strength be'? Why am I not able to trample upon those things I should trample upon? Why are the promises that I have heard not working?"

Many are crying beloved, "When will it be my turn to share testimonies?" For some, good things approach them but they do not stay. For some, the enemy just wants to kill them with frustration. That happens when there is a deeply rooted situation.

We have different kinds of problems. I remember a sister. She came crying. She studied abroad. She had her Masters overseas. She had a house by the grace of God. Three cars. But there was a problem. She was forty and had no husband. She started praying, "I want to marry. I want to marry..." It was a great problem. One day, she got home from work and the gateman opened the gate for her. She used to hear the gateman singing praise worship at the gate occasionally. So that day the gateman opened the gate and she drove in and he said, "Welcome Ma, welcome Ma."

So he rushed towards her and said, "I have something to say." She said, "Yes, what can I do to help you?" He said, "God told me that you are my wife." She looked at the man and said, "Are you drunk?" The man said, "I am not drunk, that is what God said." So she went into the room and cried and cried. Then she jumped into the car again, drove to our headquarters church and insisted she wanted to see me.

There were some people I was already seeing. Another lady was praying in the corridor when she came from the back. When the lady praying in the corridor saw me come out, she said, "G.O., unless you pray and my two breasts that disappeared come back out, look for a pastor that will bury me." So the lady who came to complain about her gateman said, "G.O., what did she just say?" I said, "When she slept, the two breasts were there, when she woke up they had vanished.” She said, “Ah, then I don’t have any problem.” And she walked away.

Different situations. This particular lady I am talking to you about did not get married until after one Power Must Change Hands program where there was a word of knowledge saying, “There is a lady here. They don’t want you to marry. If they don’t leave your case alone, within 24 hours, all those involved shall die.” She did not know it was her and she just said a shallow amen. She got home from the Power Must Change Hands program and prepared tea.

As she wanted to lift up the teacup to break her fast, the phone rang. She took the call. The person said, “Sorry, your uncle just died.” She started crying because she grew up in that man’s house. While she was still crying, the phone rang again. The person said, “It is unfortunate that your aunty in Europe just died.” Then she remembered the word of knowledge. She then added more to the tea and drank it properly. Very soon the phone rang again, a third person was gone. Within 3 months she was married.

AREAS REQUIRING DELIVERANCE

There are seven major areas requiring deliverance. In each of these areas, it can be surface, it can be moderate, and it can be deep. There are some other areas that I will mention but it is the seven major ones I will spend time on.

1. Salvation. Salvation is the greatest deliverance you could get. Bible salvation. That means you truly become born-again. Those who are really born again do not tell lies. They do not steal. They do not fornicate. They do not gossip. They do not backbite. Notice that salvation has nothing to do with church posts. The fact that you are a general overseer, a bishop or a pastor does not mean that you are born again. In fact, you may be speaking in tongues without getting born again. There are masquerades who speak in tongues. You may be doing that.

So it has nothing to do with posts. All the church posts - apostle this, apostle that, cardinal this, cardinal that, general overseer, assistant general overseer, bishop, archbishop - all those names are mere labels on a bottle. When the day of judgement comes those labels will be removed. It is what is in the bottle God will judge. Anybody who is not born again is still in the bondage of sin and death. Salvation is the first great deliverance.

There are some people, however, who hate any message of salvation. They run away from anywhere they can get born again. They hate any message that says, "Don't do this. Don't do that." They hate any preacher that says, "This is bad. That is bad." For such people, their own deliverance by salvation needs deep work. The Bible says in 2 Corinthians 4:4a, "In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not..." They will see but they will not perceive. They will hear but they will not understand. They need deep deliverance for their salvation to manifest.

2. Healing. Healing is in different departments, but when healing is needed from infirmity planted by darkness, it is different from normal sickness. It is different from overeating, mosquito bites and all such things. It is the kind of infirmity which, when you go to the hospital, they check all the vitals of the person and see that everything is okay. But the person is sick. The vitals are okay and all the organs are working well. But the person is sick and the person knows they are sick. Then the situation needs deep deliverance. This is because up till now, and forever, there is no scientist that will discover any microscope, x-ray or scan machine that will see a demon. If a demon is hiding inside the kidney, the kidney will look normal, because that thing will not detect the demon.

3. Freedom. This area also requires deliverance. When you see somebody who is not free, they are controlled by lifeless materials. A bottle of beer is controlling them. Marijuana is controlling them. Marijuana has no life. A bottle of beer has no life. They are not free. You see an able-bodied man, married at home with children, and one tiny girl, a secretary, is controlling his life. Taking his money. It is the same thing with some of the young men who are already half-starved themselves, and then with the little money they have, they take somebody to an eatery and feed her. Their thinking is not correct.

4. Breakthroughs. One thing the enemy hates is for the Christian to be happy, and Christians cannot be happy when they do not have breakthroughs.
5. Prosperity. The enemy does not want the believer to prosper. Some people do some small things and they prosper in them, but some will try so many things but nothing happens. The poverty is very deep. One has to deal with it. If you sit down and study your life, you look at your great-grandfather, he was a firewood seller, you look at your grandfather, he was a water seller, you look at your own father, he was a truck pusher, you go to your mother's side and it is the same thing, do not wait for any preacher to tell you that you need to pray too so that you can come out of the pit of poverty into which you have been born.

Fortunately, the Bible says in Psalm 113:7-8, “He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, And lifteth the needy out of the dunghill; That he may set him with princes, Even with the princes of his people.” What power put him on the dunghill? It was a power that put him there and another power is required to take him away from that dunghill and push him up.

6. Destiny. When the enemy has embalmed a person's destiny, the person would not even know their left from their right.
7. Marital. This is one area where deep deliverance is also needed. A mother brought her daughter to church. The daughter had experienced thirteen failed engagements. It was a deep matter. I asked the mother, “Mummy, where is your husband.” She said, “I don't know where he is.” I asked, “When did you last see him?” She said, “Oh when my daughter was 3 years old.” I asked, “Are you married now?” She said, “No.”

So you can see that you need to dig deep to get that information. This is a very serious matter and this is the reason many pastors and ministers are afraid of any prayer of deliverance. It is because you need to dig deep. It is easy to come to any pulpit and give a motivational talk or an inspirational talk, but not address the strongholds.

Some foreigners came to Nigeria for a crusade and a woman came to them for counselling. The woman said, "Evangelist, I've been pregnant for 7 years." The white evangelist looked at her and said, "That's not possible." He did not understand because demons in Nigeria are different from demons elsewhere. Although their own demons are more terrible than the ones in Nigeria because they are professors. Nigerian demons are just lecturers. I understand what I am saying because I travel. I know. There are some places you go to in Africa now where you do not need to go and look for a native doctor because the native doctors are on the streets, walking about like those selling newspapers. You just beckon to them to come.

These are the 7 major areas. There are some other areas which are not our concern for now. There is deliverance from death and hell.

There is deliverance from dangers. There is deliverance from enemies, both domestic and external. There is deliverance from curses, spells, hexes and evil oaths.

There is deliverance from evil covenants that people form. There is a case of a lady we are dealing with now. When they sent her to the university campus to go and study, she found somebody there she called her boyfriend. Most of you older people would have realised that all those useless boyfriends and girlfriends of those days did not do anything to help your destiny. So she met this boy on campus. "I love you." "I love you too." "I love you seriously." "I love you too." And they continued.

One day the boy came and brought a razor blade and said, "Promise you will never leave me and you will never marry any other person." The girl opened her mouth and said, "I promise." So the boy cut his finger and put the blood in a cup. He asked her to cut her own too. She too cut herself and put the blood in the same cup. He mixed it together, put a little alcohol, and they shared it and drank it. They formed a covenant that they will never marry anybody else.

Problem. The boy was undergoing his national youth service and the vehicle he was travelling in crashed. He died. So now this lady could not get anybody to marry her anymore. Any man who tried had someone come to them in the dream who beat them up thoroughly. So they ran away. It was that covenant that she formed.

Then there is evil environment. All these also require deep foundational attention.

DEPARTMENTS OF DEEP DELIVERANCE

Last edition we began to look at some examples of all these things I have been trying to explain to you. We mentioned one area of bondage. Sexual bondage. We will now go to another example requiring deep deliverance, which puts men into deep bondage.

2. Spiritual marriage. Many dream of wedding someone they do not know. Some dream of particular persons laying claim to them, that he or she has married them. Many dream of sexual intercourse. Sometimes they know the person and sometimes they do not know the person. To be quite honest with you, some actually physically experience sex without seeing the personality. Some wake up with semen all over their bodies. Some ladies experience a situation in which, immediately they start sleeping, all kinds of men start to turn up.

Marriage in the spirit realm and sexual intercourse with spirits serve the purposes of satan. Normally, sicknesses come after such encounters. Sometimes it is defilement. Sometimes it is depression. Sometimes it is discouragement. Sometimes the prayer life is paralysed after those encounters. The issue of spiritual marriage is so bad that women who have them have the jealous spirit husband attacking their husbands. The jealous spirit wife of a man who has spiritual marriage would attack the wife.

When these issues are not addressed, the prayer life is sometimes paralysed. Spiritual exercises like praying, going to church and witnessing are weakened. Bad luck, embargoes, and blockages may arise. Sometimes, after such sexual pollution, there will be failure physically. Marriage chances are blocked by these jealous spirit spouses. Some people have been confronted in their dreams for daring to say they want to marry.

I have shared something with you before. It was many years ago. God had not started Mountain of Fire at that time. We went for a wedding. The husband and wife stood, and the person wedding them was a fairly old man of God. The ceremony went on and they got to the question. "You, will you take this man as your lawful wedded husband, to love and to cherish, till death do you part?" She said, "No." The man thought she did not hear very well. He said, "Sister so and so, I said will you take this man?" She said, "I say no!"

The husband started to cry, "Please say yes. Say yes." She said, "I say no!" None of us, including myself sitting down there, knew that she was seeing a spirit husband who came to the church to warn her. That was many years ago. That cannot happen again now. You cannot come to the pulpit of Mountain of Fire, and you were not drunk before you got there, you then get there and you are saying "No". No. The deliverance ministers who are around would package the bride from the front of the church to the back, and pour some fire prayer on her, then they would return her to the altar and say, "Pastor, ask the question again."

When this spiritual marriage is in place, lives are destroyed. When you go and marry someone else, apart from the marriage they want you to stick to, there could be hindrances to childbirth and there could be all kinds of gynaecological problems. Normal marital life would not be enjoyable at all. Some may even give birth to spirit children who would be drinking the blood of their parents. Deep prayers are needed to break all those past sexual soul ties, to renounce the spiritual marriage covenants, to cancel the marriage contracts, to destroy the marriage certificates, and destroy their tokens or their gifts.

There are some who, after the spirit husband has left them, it would put money under their pillow. It is a serious matter. A lot of people are in quiet bondage. They cannot say it because people would say, "This is strange."
