Praying Against Destiny Helpers Famine – Part 1

Many were born great but died unknown. Many crawl from the cradle to the grave instead of walking

There is a famine of destiny helpers now. Famine may even be a weak word to use; there is a grave of destiny helpers now.

Jeremiah 1 is a very good chapter to look at when you talk about destiny. Let us read from verse 4-5, “Then the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.” All this was done before Jeremiah was even formed in the womb. All this was achieved before he was born. What you read in this verse is the destiny of Jeremiah. So for each person reading this, before your father met your mother and before they even got married, God had made a decision on you. He had a plan for you. That is what is called destiny.

Many were born great but died unknown. Many crawl from the cradle to the grave instead of walking. Many were born warriors but died as slaves. Many were born with rich garments but died in rags. This is a very strange thing.

My wife told me something she heard about a naming ceremony where one of the mother-in-laws was fighting with the other mother-in-law. The mother of the wife and the mother of the husband were fighting at the naming ceremony of this lady. Nobody understood why they were fighting but it became a physical fight. Then one of them said, “Well, there are eight. You have taken five and you left only three. I must have one. We must share it equally. You can have four while I have four. You can’t have five while I have three...” It became a lot of noise and people said, “Ah, what are you sharing? What is it?” They replied, “Keep quiet all of you...” and they continued the fight. But there was a strange man of God who was invited to the naming ceremony. A man who could see. The man said, “Mummy 1 and Mummy 2, before I open my eyes, two of you get out of here!” They got out, but the glory of the child, eight in proportion, had been carted away by these evil women.

Before your father met your mother and before
they even got married,
God had made a decision on you. He had a plan for you. That is what is called destiny

Many were born with glory that has been stolen like that. That is why we prayed a prayer some time ago that goes “The glory I had from my mother’s womb, that has been stolen away, I recover it. In the name of Jesus”

Many were born millionaires but died as paupers unfortunately. Many were born as heads but died as tails. Many were born as world changers but died in frustration. Many were born as runners and flyers but died as crawlers. Many were born as world prophets but died as parrots. Many were born as eagles but died as chickens. Many were born as champions but died as losers. Many were born as human gold mines but died as saw dust.

There are some women, if they took garbage to the market, they would sell it. We call them human gold mines. Anything they start selling begins to move. Some of them do not know that they carry that power, but evil men, like those terrible sugar daddies who go to university campuses to confuse young ladies, check their mirrors and see that such girls are human gold mines. All they then need to do is to sleep with them and they collect their virtue. That girl would die as a pauper and the man would get richer. So if you are a young lady who pulls off her underwear at the slightest provocation, you are burying your destiny little by little. May God have mercy so that you would not sell off all your virtue before you get married properly. If you bury all your virtue before you get married and your husband becomes poor immediately you get in, it is because you sold what you should have had to help your husband to some strange men somewhere. That is a serious problem.

God knew Jeremiah when he was still in his mother's womb. God ordained him from that mother's womb as a prophet. If by any abortion that baby was killed, it would have been Jeremiah who would have been killed. His mother may not have known that it was Jeremiah, but God would have known. The mother of that baby that would have been killed may not have known that he was a potentially mighty prophet. He was in God's agenda and God would have felt the loss that the woman had cut short the program of heaven by aborting the child.

God knew you before you were formed and He has a plan for your life. This plan could be fulfilled or aborted depending on you and other factors. Everyone is unique in God's plan. Should you feel so frustrated as to take your own life, you would have killed the future prophet you were meant to be. Should you feel so defeated today as to destroy yourself, you would have destroyed the prophet programmed to manifest tomorrow. Then it would not be one man, woman or baby who was killed, but a mission killed. It would be a whole life project aborted. That is an arrow shot into the mind of God. Should the enemy come very early to that life and defile and destroy it or should the forces of darkness divert and abort that divine schedule, the loss is not only to the person who has the destiny, but to others whose destinies are attached to that destiny. Satan in collaboration with wicked men can jeopardise and even attempt to ruin God's purpose for a life.

Should you feel so defeated today as to destroy yourself, you would have destroyed the prophet programmed to manifest tomorrow

God has a purpose for everybody He has sent to the earth. The purpose may be delayed like Abraham's but it would come to pass. The purpose may be opposed like that of Daniel but it would come to pass. The purpose may be threatened like that of Nehemiah but it would come to pass. The purpose may be passed from trouble to trouble like Joseph's but it would still come to pass. John the Baptist had a name and a ministry even before he was born. John 1:13b-17 reads, “and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb. And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God. And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.” The parents had a role to play for John the Baptist to come to the earth. If those parents decided to abort that baby, that would have been a mission aborted and a project killed.

This is a very serious matter and the reason we should have a discourse like this. Some people's destinies have already been aborted. Some people's destinies have been diverted. Before you start talking about such people receiving destiny helpers, you have to get them back over that destiny

cannot call fishes for help.
It is in the wrong place

gap. You cannot talk about destiny helpers helping you when you are out of that destiny. A monkey trying to swim cannot call fishes for help. It is in the wrong place. No matter how long a piece of stone stays under the water, it cannot become a fish. There is also no destiny for a fish that decides to go and live on a tree. For that fish to receive destiny helpers, it has to go back to the sea. The monkey has to go back to his tree. This is an area that many people do not understand. They say, "I have no job, I have no help, it is like I am all alone..." 99.9% of the time, it is because you are not where your destiny helpers can locate you. You are in the wrong place or doing the wrong thing.

You were ordained as a pilot but now you are selling wares in a supermarket. The destiny helpers attached to you are to help the pilot and not the person inside the supermarket. So you are saying, "I don't have any help..." but you are out of line. Many were born into a deficit. Their great grandfather was a poor man, their grandfather was a poor man and their father a wizard. Their mother was a witch and their great grandmother was a marine priestess. So when they are born, they are already born into a deficit. That means they are starting at zero. Their life cannot be the same as the life of a person whose grandfather was born again, father was born again, mother was born again and born into a Christian background. It can never be the same. Their struggles and battles must be different.

What is purpose? Purpose means the original intention for which a thing was created. Beloved, I am holding a microphone in my hand right now. If you look at it very well, it could also serve the purpose of mixing or turning food in the house, but that was not the original intention. Once the original intention of a thing is not known, abuse is inevitable. This is because you do not know why it is there. So as a man or a lady, you may not really know what you are doing here and because you do not really know what you are doing here, people are toying with your body. Because you do not understand it. You do not know if you are a modern day Mary, so people are toying with your body because you do not know the purpose for which you are here. Abuse is inevitable.

Then there is another thing called potential. Potential is what a thing is capable of doing. Purpose is the original intention for which it was created while potential is what it is capable of doing. When your purpose marries your potential and both are now incubated by the Holy Spirit, you fulfil your destiny.

Once the original intention of a thing is not known, abuse is inevitable

Your destiny is the plan or program of God for your life. Your destiny is the reason you were born. Your destiny is what God has written in His book concerning you before you were born. Therefore, there are twenty things that can go wrong:

1. Destiny can be negatively recreated.
2. Destiny can be rearranged.
3. Destiny can be manipulated.
4. Destiny can be suffocated.
5. Destiny can be deviated.
6. Destiny can be deflated or made to stammer.
7. Destiny can be destroyed.
8. Destiny can be dumped in a satanic dustbin.
9. Destiny can be chained.
10. Destiny can be satanically transferred.
11. Destiny can be buried alive.
12. Destiny can be defeated.
13. Destiny can be caused to float and wander. This reminds me of a brother who gave a testimony of wandering. He said he wanted to go to Europe by fire and by force. So eleven of them packed themselves into a powerful SUV and tried to drive across the desert from Nigeria. While driving across the Sahara desert they underestimated the wicked power of the desert. All their water, food and fuel in the car got exhausted. Five of them died and six were left. The remaining six decided to set the SUV ablaze so that when it started to burn and release smoke, somebody would see the smoke and detect them. Truly, when the vehicle began to burn, the desert police found them and tried to help them. They gave them water and food. Then they asked them, "Do you want to continue your journey to Europe or do you want to go back to your country?" The brother said, "I am going back to Nigeria." He shared the testimony. What kind of testimony was that? It was a testimony of a floating destiny. A wanderer.

14. Destiny can be fragmented. Split into pieces and scattered all over.
15. Destiny can be paralysed.
16. Destiny can be aborted.
17. Destiny can be cut short. For example, nobody knew what

Abel was likely to become but Cain finished him off. So that destiny was aborted.

18. Destiny can be reversed.
19. Destiny can be pulled down.
20. Destiny can be rendered dormant.

The greatest tragedy however that can often happen to a destiny is when you lack helpers. When you are rendered helpless. Amos 7:2 reads, "And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord God, forgive, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small." Verse 5 also reads, "Then said I, O Lord God, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small." The question, "by whom shall Jacob arise?" is talking about destiny helpers. Who is going to help him now? Look at his life now.

By whom shall he arise?

John 1:19-25 reads, “And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou? And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ. And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No. Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias. And they which were sent were of the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?”

In the school of mysteries of life, there are eight major questions every human being must answer.

1. The first question is this question they were asking John in the passage above. Who am

A correct definition of who you are will lead you to a correct evaluation of your ability

I? That is a question of identity. A correct definition of who you are will lead you to a correct evaluation of your ability. A wrong definition would lead you to an incorrect assessment of your personality. That is why we keep telling people that until you know your name, you cannot see your aim. The first question is, who am I? Your correct and exact definition of yourself is what that question is asking you. Your correct and exact definition of yourself from your manufacturer, who is God. No one can explain or interpret a product better than the person who made it. That is the first question. Are you able to answer that question? Who really are you? Do you really know? If you do not know there is a problem.

2. Where am I from? This talks about heritage. What is your foundation? Who was your father, mother, grandfather and grandmother? What were they doing? From which tree have you dropped as a leaf?
3. Why am I here? This talks about purpose.
4. What can I do? What am I supposed to do here? This talks about potential.
5. Who do I walk with? This talks about relationships.
6. Where am I going? This talks about destiny and fulfilment.
7. What kind of Legacy am I going to leave behind? What would be said about me after I have gone?
8. Who are my destiny helpers?

Those eight questions are the mystery questions of life. The earlier you find answers to them the better.

One thing is certain beloved, whoever you are and wherever you are coming from, you cannot live your life in isolation. No matter how smart you are, no matter how bright you are, no matter how gifted you are, no matter how talented you are and no matter how anointed you are, you need destiny promoters and destiny helpers.

There are people divinely positioned to help you in your life's journey. To fulfil your destiny, there must be a connection between you and people strategically positioned by God to assist you in realising your dreams. There are those people that are divinely programmed to move you to your next level. These are people who are catalysts for your destiny fulfilment. These are people that have been programmed by heaven to provide the help you need to achieve your goals in life. They play a defining role in your life.
