Connecting the Breaker Anointing

God wants you, like your master the Lord Jesus Christ, to be a breaker

Micah 2:13 reads, “The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.” They were together before. They were boasting before. They were claiming they were powerful; but that was before the breaker arrived.

In Jeremiah 51, God now begins to invite all of us to the School of the Breakers. We read from verse 20, “Thou art my battle axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms; and with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider; with thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid; I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.” With who? With you. Provided you connect to the breaker anointing. Ecclesiastes 3:3 says there is “a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down...”

The harsh truth is this: with these passages we have read, it means that every problem that is happening in our world is the fault of Christians. Because the passage says, “with thee I will break man and woman, I will break captains and rulers, I will break nations...” but when we fail to connect to that breaking anointing, then they will deal with us. They will worry us. They will steal from us.

God wants you, like your master the Lord Jesus Christ, to be a breaker. The Bible says in 1 John 3:8b, “For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.” God wants you to connect to the anointing of the breaker. God wants the anointing of the breaker to come upon you. When it comes upon you, you will break things and bring glory to God. When the breaker anointing comes upon you, you will break out of every limitation, you will break down every hindrance and you will break away from every disturbance and blockage.

When the breaker anointing comes upon you, you will break out of every limitation

When that anointing comes upon you, you will burst out of areas where there have been limitations. You will become a master of breakthroughs. You will breakthrough every obstacle and every hindrance. You will shake every shackle loose. You will break chains and strongholds. You will pass through the gates of the enemy and they will not be able to touch you. When that anointing comes upon you, your life will bring increase and explosion.

The great apostle Ayo Babalola landed in a town in the southwestern part of Nigeria. That place was deep in idolatry and wickedness. They were killing themselves indiscriminately. He began to minister. He ministered for three days. On Day 2, he said, "If you have any fetish power, magic power or anything such thing at home, bring them here tomorrow." Some people laughed saying, "Look at this small boy asking his fathers to bring magic power here."

By the next day the place was full with all kinds of magical materials. It was as tall as a three story building. In such a small town. One thing was curious amongst the things they brought. They were small tablets with nails on them. The number of nails on each tablet was the number of people the thing had killed. The minimum number of nails in any of those tablets was nineteen; and they brought an uncountable number of those things that they had used to finish off people.

The great apostle gathered them and threw fire on them. They began to burn. Some of the items were screaming like men and women inside the fire. Some of the ministers who were there with him ran away because they were hearing strange voices from inside the fire. The voices were threatening them saying, "What?! What?! You people?! We shall show you..." He stood there and continued burning them. By the third day of the crusade, practically the whole town got born again.

There was a white man who had been a missionary in that place for seventeen years. He could not contain himself. He faced the great apostle and said, "Brother Joseph, what we could not do in seventeen years, you have done in three days and the power of darkness upon this town is broken." That is the anointing of the breaker. He broke that power that was holding the place in bondage.

"Brother Joseph, what we could not do in seventeen years, you have done in three days and the power of darkness upon this town is broken."

Some years ago I told you about a deacon from Lagos, Nigeria. He had not been to his village for twenty years, so he decided to go and spend his vacation there. He got there and he was taking a stroll. He got to the market place, and all of a sudden, he heard thunder and lightning. There was no rain or anything. The lightening came and struck a cow in the marketplace. Only that cow. The cow fell down and died.

The man was watching the reaction of the people. He said, "Is it not a taboo that anybody should eat animals destroyed by lightening?" They said, "Yes sir." He said, "Then bury the cow." They said, "Ah! We can't.

The thunder man is coming.” Very soon, from up the hill, a man marched majestically to the marketplace and said, “Where is the cow that I killed?”

Do not listen to any preacher who tells you that the devil has no power. He has, but there is a greater power

The deacon from Lagos had ordered them to bury the cow, and they had already buried it because the thunder man did not come until after almost one hour to ask for the cow that he killed. The young men said they had buried it. He said, “Bury what?! You are all in trouble today.” They said, “No sir, no sir. It is this man that said we should bury it.” So he faced the deacon and said, “You? You asked them to bury my cow? You will follow the cow too.” He raised up his hand and started incantations.

Do not listen to any preacher who tells you that the devil has no power. He has, but there is a greater power. If the devil had no power, with what power did the magicians who confronted Moses turn their own sticks to snakes? They converted the sticks, but the greater power, the serpent of Moses, swallowed all their serpents. They lost all their sticks because the stick of serpent of Moses became just one stick again. They have power.

The thunder man raised up his hand and right from where he came from, up the mountain, thunder started again and lightning was moving towards this brother. The people fled and ran away from him. The deacon looked at the lightning coming. Then he also pointed at it and gestured, returning it in the direction it was coming from. The lightning changed direction. When it got to where the house of the man was, on the mountain, he gestured downwards and the lightning entered the man's house and burnt it to ashes. The thunder man shamefully left the marketplace. He did not come out again until after two months.

When the breaker comes, the boasting powers are disgraced

When the breaker comes, the boasting powers are disgraced. There are people reading this who need to connect to that breaking power so that they can go and break all those forces that are threatening them.

Two months later the thunder man came back and sent thunder and lightning to kill a goat. This time the young men did not wait for anybody. They immediately buried the goat. He came again and said, "Who buried my goat? I will deal with the person." The young men said, "Deal with the person? Was it not your thunder and lightning somebody controlled with one finger here? Go and sit down!" His power was broken.

When that breaker anointing comes upon you, it breaks down everything that is supposed to be broken down. It removes blockages. It will cast out the devil and the enemies that are occupying your position. More than at any other time, we need this kind of thing the Bible is talking about. "Thou art my battle axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break...” Make yourself available.

With the breaker anointing, you will break the power of disfavour, you will break the power of failure, you will break the power of health problems, you will break the power of academic frustration, you will break the power of joblessness, you will break the power of untimely death, you will break the power of the vagabond life, you will break the power of poverty, you will break the power of marital distress, you will break the power of addiction, you will break the power of infirmity and confusion, you will break the power of seeing but not attaining, you will break the power of your helpers disappearing from you, you will break the power of bewitchment, you will break the power of gradual dispossession, you will break the power of aimlessness, you will break the power of sorrow, you will break the power of unexplainable unprofitable load, you will break the power of needless fear and you will break the power of debt.

Now we come to the difficult part. For you to connect, you need to seek the face of God. You need to become a friend of God. You need to keep spending time in His presence and listening to Him. You need to obey Him one hundred percent. You cannot connect to the anointing of the breaker if you are disobeying instructions God is giving to you. If you are not ready to take instructions and you are unteachable, you cannot connect to that breaking anointing.

The mantle of Elijah was the mantle of the anointing of the breaker because it empowered Elijah to break and destroy things that should not be there. Like I have always told you, POWER is to know what ought to be, to know that what ought to be is not what is happening, and then decree that what ought to be must be, and you remove hindrance from your way. The anointing of the breaker.

One of the most interesting missionaries the world has known, was a young man called David Brainerd. David Brainerd died at the age of twenty nine, but in the few years he spent, he made an unforgettable impact because he was a breaker. He was a missionary to the Indians. He did not understand their language so he did not know what they were saying. They were in their own remote place and very primitive. He decided to go there in spite of the fact the people warned him that the people would kill him immediately they saw that he was a white man.

When he arrived at the village, he did not know they had seen him and were ready with arrows and all kinds of things with which to kill him. He knelt down at the entrance of the village to pray. He eyes were closed while he was praying. He did not know that a poisonous serpent was crawling towards him. Those Indians who wanted to kill him saw the serpent. They said, “Well, we wanted to kill him anyway. There is something that will kill him very quickly now.”

The snake moved, raised its head as if to strike the face of Brainerd, but all of a sudden came down again. Instead of attacking Brainerd, it just came down and crawled away. Brainerd did not even open his eyes and did not know what happened. When these villagers who had no Christ saw it, they communed among themselves and said, “The gods are with him.” That is how he penetrated the place.

When he got there he could only speak English. He did not understand their language. The only person who could interpret was a drunkard who understood their language and English. They started looking for the man. When they found the man, he was drinking. He dragged him up from his drinking. The man was so drunk that Brainerd had to hold him up as he interpreted so that he would not fall down. Because Brainerd was a breaker however, even through the mouth of that man, souls were saved.

May you be a breaker.
