The Truth You Know – Part 2

These are simple strategies the enemy uses to defeat our deliverance and defeat us

Last edition, we looked at some facts about the truth. We also looked into the origin of earrings, jewellery and the wearing of clothes pertaining to other genders.

Now for cosmetics. The earliest condemnation of cosmetics is associated with a witch woman in the Bible called Jezebel who painted her eyes and eyelids. It is even very terrible now. Some people would put starch on their eyelids to make it stand out like the eyes of a lizard, looking very scary. It is a very sad thing. Why can people not leave the image of God the way God made it? If you are a black woman, why do you want your hair to look like that of a white woman? The white woman does not struggle to make her hair look like that of a black woman, so why do you want to copy? Why do you want to change the colour of your skin? Why are you using things that would bleach your skin to make you lighter than God made you? Why do you want to lighten your complexion? These are simple strategies the enemy uses to defeat our deliverance and defeat us. It is a very strange but straightforward thing but people do not want to follow it. It is very sad.

I was lamenting here the other day. My wife gave me a magazine that was filled with people who were wedding and I was looking at the pictures. I wondered, "Oh my goodness, do they have to dress like this on their wedding day?" The whole of the breasts upwards were exposed. The dresses did not even have something to hold them on the arm, it was the breasts that were holding them, and they called them Christian weddings. I then got to a part of the magazine where I saw an Islamic wedding. The bride was all wrapped up. Head, chest and everything. Yet we claim we are serving the true God. This is very sad. We are doing everything to invite seduction, to invite trouble and to invite the enemy. Those priests who are marrying off naked women in church also need deliverance. I may be wrong, but I have a feeling that they enjoy looking at those open breasts and open chests. There was a lady that came to Mountain of Fire to wed some time ago. It was a brother here who went and brought her here from another church. She said, "I don't agree with your dressing here. I don't want to dress like this on my wedding day..." So she came with that type of dress that only the breasts hold up. She did not know she was coming to Mountain of Fire. So we said, "No, we can't wed you like this." She said, "But I don't have any other dress." We insisted we could not do it and it became a big row. They came to consult me at the back office where I was conducting my counselling sessions. I said, "Does her wedding dress have a train?" That long thing that they drag on the ground. They said she had. I said, "That's good. Just take it off the ground and wrap it around her neck and shoulders."

1 Timothy 2:9 reads, "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works." If you are a woman, and you do not want to be godly, this scripture does not apply to you. If you are a woman who wants to be godly, or you are not married yet and want to marry a godly husband, this scripture is for you. Modest apparel is apparel that covers the body so as to let you appear in a modest way. Dresses and skirts should at least cover the knee, so that you do not expose your underwear to the man in front of

The origin of decorative jewellery is in deep idolatry. The original jewellery that was available were amulets and charms

you. These days, people wear skirts that are dangerously running away from the knees. Then they would have a scarf to use to cover their legs so that you do not see their underwear. Why do you not just add an extra half yard to that skirt and lengthen it? Some say, "Man of God! All my dresses are trousers!" Convert them to skirts. Take scissors and cut them up on both sides to become a skirt. Your skirt is only as long as that slit you cut in it. When you wear clothes that stick to your body like glue, you are advertising something. I watched a program on TV. It was set in France. They brought fashion experts and they were discussing fashion. I do not know what drew my attention to that program. One lady they called an expert said something that I can never forget. She said, "Every dress you put on has a voice. It is saying something. It speaks. You can dress to seduce, you can dress to impress and you can dress for ceremonies but every dress has a voice and is saying something." It then made me understand what Zechariah meant when he said people were putting on strange garments. Tight fitting clothing, figure hugging and things like that. They are ungodly. If you are an instrument to make another person stumble, the Bible says it is better for you to be thrown into the depths of the sea. Some men are already in trouble with women who wear large dresses but you now wear the one that is very tight. You add more to their confusion. If you have plenty of jewellery at home and you do not know what to do with them, go and sell them and use the money for the gospel. Build a castle for yourself in heaven where moth and rust do not destroy.

25 REASONS IT IS SAFER SPIRITUALLY FOR YOU TO REMAIN NATURAL:

1. The origin of make-up is from fallen angels. Those angel who fell in the book of Genesis and came to marry the daughters of men were the ones who taught the daughters of men make-up. Those who call it make-up are very correct: you feel the thing

Every dress you put on has a voice. It is saying something. It speaks is not up to standard and you want to make it up.

2. The origin of decorative jewellery is in deep idolatry. The original jewellery that was available were amulets and charms that people were using.
3. You may end up polluting your life by using occult symbols in jewellery. Prayer cannot deliver you from this, it is only knowledge. Just take them off. That is all. It is an abomination. Remove it.
4. If you do not remain natural, you will pay the price of altering the image of God. Piercing of ears has its origin in slavery and idolatry. I have explained the idolatry aspect to you. For the slavery aspect, in the old days, they bored holes into the ears of slaves to recognise that they are slaves. If they put the hole in one ear, it meant you have one slave master. If they bored it into the two ears, it meant you have two slave masters. I am sure you are not a slave.
5. When you remain natural, you will be able to pay more attention to your inner beauty.
6. When you remain natural, you will not share in the iniquities of others you do not know about.

When you remain natural,
you will not become a slave of unknown powers.
A single ear ring can keep a spirit husband in your life forever

7. When you remain natural, you will not become a slave of unknown powers. A single ear ring can keep a spirit husband in your life forever. Unless you throw it away. A lot of inanimate objects carry demons that you cannot see. I remember some time ago, a diplomat from Nigeria came back from some countries abroad and everybody became sick in the house. He was sick, his wife was sick and the children were sick. Everything was upside down. So he begged someone to ask me to come. This was many years ago. Immediately I entered into their house, there was this overshadowing heaviness. To even conduct praise and worship there was difficult. So I said, "Sorry, we are not going to pray now." I started pointing at things in the house saying,

If you do not remain natural, you may bring abominations into your house when you use strange objects and symbols as part of your dressing

“Bring this... bring that...” They were all decorative materials he brought from other countries to Nigeria. I said, “Put them on the floor. We must destroy these ones.” He said, “No sir. Ah, they are expensive souvenirs.” I said, “We must destroy them if you must have peace.” He said, “With due respect, no sir.” So I carried my Bible and bid them farewell. They said, “Dr. Olukoya come back. Are you going to leave us like this?” I said, “But you don’t want us to destroy these things that are destroying you.” The wife said, “Darling, let him destroy them!” So we put them outside, poured kerosene on them and struck a match. Immediately they caught fire, we were not dreaming, Indian music started to come out of the fire. The man shouted and asked who was singing. I said it was the demons. He said, “Ah! And you can stand there?” Then he ran away, even though he was the one that brought those things in. He ran back into the house. I thought he was just going there to sit down but he went and brought all the other decorations and said, “Burn them! Burn them!” So, an inanimate object can carry demons and invite trouble to your life.

8. If you do not remain natural, you may be a hidden idol advertiser and worshipper.
9. If you do not remain natural, you may bring abominations into your house when you use strange objects and symbols as part of your dressing. The Bible did not say you cannot dress well. You can dress well and wear expensive clothing, but jewellery, ear rings, bangles, bracelets, anklets and all such things are not in accordance with what the word of God wants the children of God to put on.
10. If you do not remain natural, you may put on materials that would be testifying against you or dedicate you to strange powers.

11. If you do not remain natural, you may be wearing things carrying a sign you do not understand and you may be under hidden curses being released against you.
12. If you do not remain natural, you may carry an evil aura around your person because of those things you are putting on.
13. If you do not remain natural, you may be responsible for making others to stumble. Your hair is your hair. If it is short, then God wanted it short. Leave it like that. If it is long, leave it like that. God wanted it to be long. When you attach all kinds of things to it, whether cloth, wool, wire, imported weave-on or the one you put on yourself, or attachments, you are looking for trouble for that head.
14. All our early Pentecostal fathers in Nigeria, without any

All our early Pentecostal fathers in Nigeria, without any exception, banned the use of jewellery, ear rings and all such things exception, banned the use of jewellery, ear rings and all such things because God opened their eyes to see that those things were magnets of evil. Men like Joseph Ayo Babalola, and all those men of old, banned these things from their churches. It is very sad and we need to be very careful. Up till this very moment, I have seen the wife of the General Overseer of Foursquare Gospel Church before and I saw that she does not use those things. I have seen the wife of the General Overseer of The Redeemed Christian Church of God, she does not use those things. Most of you have seen my wife. They do not use those things because of this. When you do not want to resemble your father, there is a problem. Our early Pentecostal fathers, who spoke to God face to face, banned these things. Even our forefathers who were not Christians said gold is a demon.

15. If you refuse to remain natural, you may be applying materials from aborted babies, corpses, executed prisoners and human placenta to your body. Many people do not know that these things are used to produce make-up. What a tragedy it is when someone adds red colour to a dead baby, then you say you want to use lipstick and you apply a dead baby on your lips. These are a jezebellian kind of anointing.

16. Confessions from former satanists show that jewellery and make-up can put you in iron-like bondage. There is even an audio tape out now of a woman who claimed to have spent over 900 years in the demonic world. She even said that if you are using all these things, you are going to Hell Fire. She said it point blank. It is the truth, but it is bitter. There is nothing you can do about it.
17. The children of Ishmael in the Bible were the experts in wearing ear rings, which are always rooted in slavery and idolatry.
18. When you remain natural, your inner beauty will manifest and you will have the beauty of the Lord upon your life.
19. The only cutting of the flesh allowed in scripture is male circumcision. Asides from male circumcision, the Bible does not want you to cut your flesh anywhere. This includes all those body tattoos. If I ask some of our elderly mothers, they would have drawn pictures of leaves, lizards and cockroaches on their bodies with tattoos. Some even have the sign of the oracle painted on their bodies. The Bible says you should not cut your body at all. Any cut in your body brings out your blood and that blood is used to form a covenant with some demons.

20. You should remain natural because your body is the temple of God and should not be defiled.
21. You need to remain natural beloved because the fashion of this world passes away. Remember what I said earlier. I am not trying to persuade you, no. Let me just state the truth. What you do with it is left to you now. My neck would have been clean and there would be nobody's blood on my head.

When you remain natural,
your inner beauty will manifest and you will have the beauty of the Lord upon your life

You would not say, "They did not explain it to us."

22. Wedding rings also do not have their origin in scripture. The third finger on which they are put is rooted in an ancient belief that blood runs directly from that third finger to the heart, so the ring would capture the heart of the man. That is why in Mountain of Fire and Miracles Ministries we do not join people in marriage with rings. We join them with the Bible, which is the word of God. We do not say, "With this ring, I thee wed..." No. It is, "With this Bible, which is the word of God that cannot be broken, I join you together" If your wedding ring gets missing and the enemy steals it and takes it to the coven, the marriage is in trouble.
23. Holiness is from the inside to the outside. If a tomato is ripe outside, it is because it is ripe inside. If you pursue holiness within, all these things would make no sense to you again.
24. Prophets and prophetesses of God avoid anything that would bring danger into their lives. They avoid it so that they do not transfer trouble from one life to the other.

Holiness is from the inside to the outside. If a tomato is ripe outside, it is because it is ripe inside

25. Isaiah 3:16-24 reads, "Moreover the Lord saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet:" Have you noticed the way some people change their style of walking? Some men bend one side to walk as if the ground is calling them from the right side to the left side. Verse 17: "Therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the Lord will discover their secret parts. In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their round tires like the moon," The way some people wear skyscraper headgear to church on Sundays

prevents them from praying. Apart from blocking the sight of people at the back from seeing the preacher, she also cannot pray because the thing may fall off. Verse 19: “The chains, and the bracelets, and the mufflers, The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the tablets, and the earrings, The rings, and nose jewels, The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping pins, The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the veils. And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle a rent; and instead of well set hair baldness; and instead of a stomacher a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty.” This passage tells us the end result of this disobedience to biblical injunction. When you see a new born babe, you are looking at the image of God. Any attempt to deface or alter that image, including tribal marks that are put on the face, is a pollution of God’s image. The judgement is what we read in that passage. I am here to help you and you have to listen to the word of God. You better be careful with any husband that wants to marry you and does not want you to look natural, because you have not found a husband yet. You have found a show boy. The day he finds someone who can paint better than you, he is gone. If the man marries you because of the contours of your body, the day he sees someone with better contours, he is gone.

The ball is in your court. It is either you take the truth or you leave it. One way or the other you will remember that you were told that these things are not safe for your spiritual sanity. Those who are still hiding and those who are saying, “Well, the reason I cannot join them yet is because I don’t like their dressing.” Well, do not worry. Anything you cannot abandon for the Lord Jesus Christ has become an idol in your life. This is a serious matter.

If, however, you are a woman who attends Mountain of Fire, and your husband does not come to this church, and he says you have to wear these things or the marriage will break up, wear them and keep praying that God should touch his heart. You should not break up your marriage because of that. There are some who claim to be born again, both the husband and wife attend Mountain of Fire, but they are still in bondage of jewellery, ear rings and all those things. God will help us in Jesus name.
