Get out of Evil Caves

Do not let discouragement defeat you. Let your faith defeat doubt and defeat discouragement

Let us read 1 Kings 19:8-13. Elijah had destroyed the prophets of Baal, and Jezebel had threatened Elijah. That is the background to this story, “And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat forty days and forty nights unto Horeb the mount of God. And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah? And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD.

And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake: and after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice. And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah?"

No matter who you are, no matter your parentage, no matter your age, no matter your background, no matter how colourful they have shown your destiny to be, and no matter how spiritual you are, you will certainly face occasional problems. The way you handle that problem is what decides whether the problem would become very bad. Hardship is not always from the devil. Some of such experiences are necessary for healthy Christian growth.

Take the example of Joseph. God transferred him to Egypt because

See whatever the enemy is bringing before you as an opportunity for God to glorify Himself his environment was too aggressive for his dreams to come through. He went from one problem to the other and one problem to the other. He spent 13 years in prison. His master's wife tried to seduce him, and they jailed him. And you know it was from that prison Joseph got transferred to the palace of Pharaoh. How did he get into prison? He got into prison because he refused to commit adultery with his master's wife. Supposing he had agreed to that adultery, then there would be no prison, and, automatically, there would have been no palace. He went from the prison to the throne.

So, see whatever the enemy is bringing before you as an opportunity for God to glorify Himself. You should not allow any problem you have to push you into sin because you will hinder divine solution and then you will stall your promotion.

CAVES YOU NEED TO GET OUT OF

1. The cave of sin. This year runs to an end soon. You have to make up your mind to depart from the cave of sin. That is the first cave to get out of.
2. The cave of past experience. “I used to be in the choir in those days... I used to be in revival in those days... I used to see visions before... I used to... I used to...” You need to depart from that cave of past experiences.
3. The cave of evil imagination. It is evil imagination that sponsors action and gives the enemy more power. Immediately you begin to have bad imagination about yourself, you give your enemy more power. When God saw the kind of cave Elijah was in, He said, “Come out of that cave.” He asked him what he was doing in that cave. Elijah was in that cave, and he was imagining what they would do to him.

Immediately you begin to have bad imagination about yourself, you are cleverly digging your grave and hiding the spade. It is very strange what some people can imagine against themselves. Some even come to church to just stare at the preacher and the singers, but their minds are miles away. Some imagine themselves in a coffin. Some imagine that poverty or sickness will kill them. They form a bad picture in their own minds. Some imagine that nobody loves them. Some imagine that people are always talking about them. This is a very serious matter. If your imagination about yourself is evil, everything will look bleak in that cave where you are.

4. The fourth cave you should get out of is the cave of doubt. As this year runs to an end, why do you worry yourself so much when you are aware that you cannot remove any problem by worrying yourself? When you know you cannot remove the problem by yourself. Why are you doubting God when you know that doubting God is a sin? Why do you keep committing this sin of doubting God and believing God is powerless to help you? Why do you believe all the bad dreams but not the good ones?

Many are becoming lean and sick because of worry, and the worry is caused by doubt. So you must get out of the cave of doubt. Get out of that cave. Do not let the enemy kill you in the cave of doubt. Doubters are always sorrowful people. The Bible says in Hebrews 11:6b, “for

Why are you doubting God when you know that doubting God is a sin?

he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.” The Bible says in James 1:6-7 that when you ask God, “...ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.”

You believe the news written in the newspapers, you believe all the news on the television, but then you refuse to believe the word of God, which says it shall be well with you. You refuse to believe that He Himself took your infirmity and took away your sicknesses. You must get on the television, but then you refuse to believe says it shall be well with you out of that cave. The cave of doubt.

Many years ago, actually in the early '80s, I was driving my bus towards a place in Akowonjo, Lagos, and I saw this sister. She used to be very fat, but now she was very lean. I stopped. We had not seen her in fellowship for a while. So I parked my vehicle and said, "Madam, what's the matter?" Each time she attempted to start the story, she would break down. Eventually, she was able to tell me the story.

She had been married for 16 years, and she has five children. One day the husband came home, brought a native doctor, cum prophet, and gave the prophet a room in their house. She said, "Darling, who is this man?" He said, "The man is there to chase you out." She said, "But why?" He said, "Because I've been told that you are the witch disturbing my progress. So you must leave." The woman said, "I'm not leaving. We built this house together. So I can't leave."

So the native doctor, cum prophet, remained in their house there. The woman would wake up in the morning and find blood by her doorstep. Sometimes, dead animals by her doorstep. She could not eat. She could not sleep. But all that was small until she went to her local church to ask for help. When she asked for help and told them the story, they promised, "Madam, we are coming to your house to hold vigil." She was happy.

That night prayer warriors came with 11 people, but, as they entered the house, they saw a dead goat at the step of the madam's door. The head of the prayer warriors summoned his people and said, "Ah, we cannot pray here. The Lord said we shall not pray here. Let us go and pray in church." So they took their stuff, and they were going away. Madam said, "Why are you going?" They said, "The Lord said we should pray the prayer in the church, not here." She said, "But this is where the problem is. Why do you want to go to church? Let's pray here. You are already here. Why do you want to go away?" They said, "Thus saith the Lord, we are going away." They went and they never held any vigil in the church. So the problem escalated. She said this was why she lost weight and worried and she was the way she was.

I listened to the story carefully. She now said, "The insult upon injury is that my husband said I should be cooking for the man." I said, "Stop there. What did you just say? You cook his food? That's fine. There is no problem. His next food you will prepare, say, 'Father let Your fire enter into this food. Let Your thunder enter into this food. Let Your brimstone enter into this food.' Then serve him. Let's see what happens." She said, "Brother Daniel, is that all I am going to do?" I said, "Yes." She said, "Oh, you don't want to help me." I said, "Go and do what I asked you to do." She said, "But the house is not far sir." I said, "But I am going for a meeting. Go and do what I asked you to do." She said, "Thank you." She went home.

Discouraged people do not hear from God

I had said, “Fire, thunder, brimstone...” When she got home she called fire, thunder, brimstone, sulphur, and pepper into the food. She served the man, and the man made a holy mistake. He ate. All of a sudden, in the middle of the night, the man started complaining, “My room is hot, my room is hot, this room is hot...” The husband came and said, “But there is an air conditioner in your room, what is hot?” He kept saying, “The room is hot, I can’t stay here. It’s hot. It as if something wants to suffocate me. It’s hot. Look, I can’t stay here.” And he packed his stuff and ran out in the middle of the night. That was how peace was restored to that place.

5. The fifth cave is the cave of discouragement.

Discouragement is to take courage out of somebody. Discouragement is to lack courage. Discouraged people do not hear from God. The devil knows that discouraged people cannot hear God properly. Encouragement causes hope, but discouragement brings hopelessness and despair. Discouraged people always have a lot of loose ends to tidy up. The Bible says in 1 Samuel 30:6b, “But David encouraged himself in the LORD his God.” So encouragement is a decision and discouragement is a decision. Do not wait for somebody to come and encourage you. Encourage yourself in the Lord. There is a scarcity of human beings who encourage others. Do not let discouragement defeat you. Let your faith defeat doubt and defeat discouragement.

Do not wait for somebody to come and encourage you. Encourage yourself in the Lord

There was a woman in the US with three children, a runaway husband, and joblessness. The children were always crying, "Mummy, we're hungry; mummy we're hungry..." This woman began to pray and fast, but the children did not understand the prayer and fasting, they just wanted food. She started praying. Somebody got a copy of Prayer Rain into her hands. She started praying from page to page.

Then there was a particular morning when there was nothing in the house again. Not a drop of food. Nothing. It was terrible. So she went again and started praying and, the Lord said, "Daughter, I would help you today. Get up, go to that supermarket across the road and go and get things." She said, "Lord, there is no money." The Lord said, "I know. Are you going to doubt or believe?" So she rose up with no money and went to the supermarket.

When she got there, she said, "Lord, I'm here." He said, "Take a trolley and fill it with everything you want." She began to fill the trolley. She filled the first trolley and said, "Lord, well, I have filled it. How do I pay?" He said, "Fill a second trolley." She filled a second trolley. "Lord, how do I pay?" "Fill a third trolley." "Lord, how do I pay?" "Fill a fourth trolley." She continued filling until she got to seven trolleys filled with food. She said, "Well there are seven trolleys here. Everybody is staring at me at this supermarket thinking, 'What is this? Who wants to eat all these things? Why is this woman packing so many things in trolleys?'"

And the Lord said, "Go to Counter 7. Go there." She said, "Lord the place is busy, but 3 is free." The Lord said, "I said 7." So she drove everything and pushed them one by one to 7. As she was going to somebody who would take payment, the person who would take the payment said, “I have a five-minute break. Go to another counter.” The Lord said, “Remain there.” So she stood there. Someone else said, “Come and pay here.” She said, “No, I’m fine here.”

After about five minutes, this fellow came back. As she pushed in the first trolley the man began to scan the goods. All of a sudden, there was an announcement, “Ladies and gentlemen, today is the 40th Year Anniversary of this supermarket, and we have decided that any customer that is in Carousel 7 at this particular time, anything the person buys is free.”

Doubt is surely a destroyer.
