Spiritual Nuclear Prayers

To choose to be righteous in an unrighteous world is war. Whosoever does not wish to fight that war is choosing to be compromised or victimized

There are some prayers you need to pray under the anointing available to everyone reading this month's edition and I want to explain those prayers to you before you start praying them. Try to let your spiritual and physical ears be open. You need to know why we are praying them and how to pray them. I call them spiritual nuclear prayers.

When you talk about spiritual nuclear prayers, there is one place to go in the Bible, and we will read it very soon. But when you read your Bible, you may be confronted with some passages that seem to contradict each other or long-held ideas.

For example, look at Revelation 12:7-8, "And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, and prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven."

Prayer Interlude

Every hardened enemy assigned against me, I shall see them no more, in the name of Jesus

War in heaven? Does the loving God fight? People often think that holy people have no problems and that the battles of life are always a consequence of the sins of men. So, what sin did God commit that caused war to break out in heaven? Does God fight? If He is a fighter, should I not also be a fighter?

In that same passage, the Bible records that Michael and his angels started to fight against the dragon and the dragon also fought. Then you ask yourself, “How can this commotion and warfare take place in the paradise of God which is the home of peace?” Is there something about God that we do not yet know or understand? We need to grasp this.

If there is war in heaven, why do you think it strange that the enemy is waging war against your marriage? Why do you think it strange that the enemy is fighting against your business? If the angels of God in heaven have to fight to make sure the purpose of God is fulfilled and to establish the mandate of God, who gave you the idea that you do not need to do any fighting for your destiny to be established?

You may sing that you are born to win. Yes, being born to win also means that you are born to fight

If it could happen in heaven, what gives the impression that you will not fight? You may sing that you are born to win. Yes, being born to win also means that you are born to fight. There are many things in scripture that we need to look at very closely.

Let us also look at Revelation 19:11-14, “And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.”

This is another passage that looks contradictory. It speaks about the righteous going to war. Should the righteous go to war? Traditionally, you would have thought that righteousness is only about making peace, but this passage is talking about making war in righteousness. Can anyone who is righteous make war?

Aside from righteousness, which does not go with war or agree with blood, how can we say that He is wearing a vesture dipped in blood? How can someone with flaming eyes be righteous? How can such a warrior with bloody garments be called the Word of God? We need to think very well. How can that kind of thing take place? Is it possible that we have misunderstood or not fully grasped the meanings of righteousness and holiness? Is it that we do not understand what making peace really means?

The passage talks about the armies of heaven. Are there armies in heaven? Air Force, Navy, and foot soldiers? And the clothes of this person fighting are dipped in blood? Then we need to understand something. If God is righteous and is a fighter, for the Bible says the Lord is a Man of War and the Lord is His name, can I be more righteous than the righteous God by refraining from fighting? It will appear to me very clearly that anyone who is righteous and ignores the enemy will become a quick, foolish, and senseless casualty.

The enemy you spare may never spare you. Not only because life is war, but the call to righteousness is war in itself. When you say you want to be righteous, you have declared war against unrighteousness. To choose to be righteous in an unrighteous world is war. Whosoever does not wish to fight that war is choosing to be compromised or victimized. The enemy you ignore may not spare you. Some peace may never come unless through war. Most times, peace-making means war. In fact, Ephesians tells us about righteousness being an armor.

So, should the righteous make war? The answer is a resounding YES. If they do not make war, they will get swallowed in the same war they avoid and by the same enemies they have allowed to go in peace. The enemy you spare may not spare you. If you do not dislocate them before they get you, you might not even exist anymore to practice that righteousness. The best defence is always attack. The Bible says in Matthew 11:12, “And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.”

These spiritual nuclear prayers are the prayers of the psalmist.

The psalmist prayed aggressive prayers. He prayed severe prayers. But the way to know that he was fighting a spiritual war is that his personal physical actions towards his enemies were gracious and kind. Saul was pursuing David and deserved everything for which David prayed. Saul also received much for which David prayed. The prayers that David prayed worked against Saul. Yet, when David had the opportunity to kill him, he did not. Although he was praying fiercely, his actions were gracious and kind. We need to study the Bible very well.

Look at the New Testament. You will find it contains curses. Paul, the man who wrote the wonderful chapter of love, cursed Elymas the sorcerer, the man also known as Bar-jesus, who wanted to pervert the gospel. Peter pronounced death on Ananias and Sapphira. Paul delivered Hymenaeus and Alexander over to satan. The Bible says there is a time to love, a time to hate, a time for war, and a time for peace.

Even Jesus was not left alone in this matter. Jesus said, “Woe unto you, scribes and pharisees...” He pronounced woe upon them. Woe means adversity, wretchedness, tribulation, misfortune, sorrow, disaster, agony, and affliction. Jesus prayed woe. What a foolish attitude to think that the enemy you are firing live bullets at will fire rubber bullets back at you. This is why David prayed this kind of prayers. Let me tell you the truth. Many of us come from backgrounds and foundations that need this kind of nuclear prayers.

The Bible says there is a time to love, a time to hate, a time for war, and a time for peace

Look at the hot severe prayers in Psalm 69:22-28, “Let their table become a snare before them: And that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap. Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; And make their loins continually to shake. Pour out thine indignation upon them, And let thy wrathful anger take hold of them. Let their habitation be desolate; And let none dwell in their tents. For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; And they talk to the grief of those whom thou hast wounded. Add iniquity unto their iniquity: And let them not come into thy righteousness. Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, And not be written with the righteous.”

These are nuclear prayers. No nonsense, uncivilized, and unsanitized prayers.

It will be practically impossible for many to fulfil their destinies without this kind of prayer. Many are born into deficit situations where you need nuclear prayers to get out. Over and over again, on the deliverance ground, we have heard demons telling us, “What is it? There is nothing you can do. I have done this, and I have done that,” I saw a beautiful young lady with a demon speaking through her, saying, “I am the mother. She must not prosper. I followed her to England and made sure she did not succeed. I practically turned her into a prostitute. She got pregnant. We ate the baby in our meeting.” A demon speaking from somebody’s mouth.

Now, when you see a spirit talking like that, it tells you that they know what they are doing. Therefore, you have to stop them before they stop you. If you do not stop them, they will stop you. Sometimes, after the enemy has stopped you, they will get born again. And the mystery of our faith is that God will accept them.

Prayer Interlude

Powers that stopped my parents, you cannot stop me, die, in the name of Jesus.

So, the process is very simple. The nuclear prayer of the psalmist is to stop them before they stop you. Dislocate them before they dislocate you. Embarrass them before they embarrass you. Stop them before they stop you.

David was a man after God's heart. He had prophetic anointing. He had kingly anointing. He had warrior anointing. He had priestly anointing. He had worship anointing. He had deliverance anointing. He had prayer anointing. He understood warfare and every arrow of prayer that David fired worked like fire. He dealt with Goliath. He dealt with the Philistines. He subjected all his enemies to shame. He never lost battles. In fact, many of the nations fighting against Israel today were paying tribute to David during his time. It was after he left the scene that they began to break away. It is therefore spiritually beneficial for anyone who knows they have a battle to fight to pick up lessons from David's prayers.

In the spiritual realm, overkill is better than underkill because the enemy you spare will come back to fight you

In the spiritual realm, overkill is better than underkill because the enemy you spare will come back to fight you. That is how it works in the spiritual realm. You can never over-pray. You can only under-pray.

When you are inside a war and do not even know you are there, you are to be pitied a lot. You are deep inside a war, and you are rejoicing as if you do not know you are in it. You are making fun of those who are fighting and do not know that you are still coming to fight.

The songwriter said,

'Christian! seek not yet repose,' hear thy guardian angel say;
thou art in the midst of foes;
'watch and pray.'

Principalities and powers, mustered their unseen array,
wait for thy unguarded hours;
'watch and pray.'

There are some people who should not bother to pray. If you are in the category I am about to describe, just pray for the rest of us. If your great-great-grandfather was a born-again Christian who did not worship any idols, your great-grandfather was born again and served the living God with no idols or polygamy, your grandfather was born again, with no polygamy or idols and worshipped Jesus Christ, and your father was also born again and worshipped God with no idols, polygamy or witchcraft. The same thing on your mother's side. Your great-great-grandmother was born again and not a marine priestess or a witch. Then do not bother to pray. You are free. Just pray for the rest of us.

But you know yourself that your father was a masquerade. You know that your great-grandfather could dive into water and come out with his body still dry. You know your ancestors could turn into serpents, scorpions, and dragons. You need to pray very well.

Even in the history books of the city of Lagos, Nigeria, we read that one of the founders of the city used to turn into a snake and go into the forest. He would come back, get into a pot and become a human being again. One day, one of his children overturned that pot. When he came back, he could not enter the pot, so he went back into the forest. So, you need prayers. When you have enemies who are ready to bite you without remnants, you must use all the weapons you have.

Is everyone mocking you? You need nuclear prayers. Are people telling you, "Do you see how bad your life is now? Come and worship the devil." You need nuclear prayers. Are people concluding that you are finished when you are not yet old? You need nuclear prayers.

Can you see your enemies rejoicing with joy on their faces? Are your enemies jubilating over your condition? Then you need nuclear prayers. Are your supporters always being destroyed? You need those nuclear prayers. Is the enemy about to broadcast your name for evil and has even issued a death sentence against you? They faced you directly and said, "Look here, I will destroy you." Then you need nuclear prayers.

You need nuclear prayers when you discover that smiling is becoming a difficult job in your life. Funds are very low, and your debt is very high. You need nuclear prayers when you have an array of mockers assembled against you who are bent on putting you to shame and experts are already predicting that you cannot make it. You need those prayers when you have come to your wits end, your friends have forsaken you and you are all alone.

You need those prayers when unbelievers are asking you, "Show us the God whom you claim to serve." You need those prayers when you are at a standstill in life. You need those prayers when even your friends are becoming your enemies. You need those prayers when evil powers are challenging God in your life. You need these prayers when shedding tears has become a regular affair. You need those prayers when you have become an expert at not finishing all the good things you start. You need those prayers when you cannot even have sound sleep.

When you want to smile but crying comes. When you have become greatness incarcerated behind iron bars of injustice and blackmail. You are lost in the sea of despair and hopelessness. You are a golden greatness but lost in the wilderness of frustration. Something has held you in the permanent chain of fear. You are completely blinded by the arrows of unbelief and ignorance, and the enemy has put a full stop to your moving forward. You need those prayers.

It is better to over-pray than to under-pray. It is better to bank your prayers. When you bank it enough, it will help you, it will help your spouse, and it will help your children

It is better to over-pray than to under-pray. It is better to bank your prayers. When you bank it enough, it will help you, it will help your spouse, and it will help your children. This is why you find the psalmist put weapons inside his prayers. He used blindness, darkness, desolation, trouble, nets, snares, traps, brimstone, terror, arrows, sudden destruction, sudden shame, fiery ovens, evil angels, tempest, chains, fetters of iron, horrible tempest, thunder, and earthquake. Those are the nuclear prayers.

If you are ready to pray these prayers, you need to do the following:

1. Surrender your life to Jesus.
2. Repent from every known sin.
3. Understand that the world in which we live lies in wickedness, and to arrest wickedness you need violence. That is why we need these prayers.

If you have not yet surrendered your life to Jesus and you are not born again, these prayers cannot work for you. You need to surrender your life to Jesus. So, wherever you are, just close your eyes and say, “Father, in the name of Jesus, I come before you now. Lord Jesus, come into my life. Take control of my life. In Jesus' name. Amen” If you said this short prayer, I congratulate you.
