Since 1951
Minelli's
TAKE-OUT

The Minelli family created a legacy of Italian food recipes that were handed down from generation to generation. Rich in tradition and unparalleled in quality, authentic and unique they were introduced by Marco and Dario Minelli (father and uncle to Siro) into Canada in the early 1950s. They opened their first restaurant on James Street (next to the present day Spadoni's), their second location was on Queen Street and finally on to Great Northern Road.

In 1980 Siro and I became the sole owners of Minelli's on Great Northern Road, in 2005 we moved and re-opened in the Pine Plaza. Siro's passing this year while devastating to our family will not stop our family from carrying on the proud tradition of making authentic Italian food in fact it was a wish of Siro's that we continue his family's tradition.

Above everything else Minelli's name and products represent quality without compromise where most products are produced on the premises from our treasured family recipes with pride.

Enjoy, Buon Appetito

Julie Minelli and with us always, Siro Minelli
