Kayakers Recover Prosthetic Leg While on Dan River

Date of Release: Wednesday, July 26, 2017

[Wentworth, N.C.]— Rockingham County Sheriff's Deputies are attempting to locate the owner of a below-the-knee prosthetic leg that was located by kayakers on the Dan River on Wednesday July 12th. The leg was turned over to Sheriff's Deputies who are now attempting to locate the owner in order to return it. (Attempts to obtain owner information based on the serial number attached to the prosthetic leg have not been successful.)

The recovered prosthetic leg is pictured below. Anyone with information with regards to the possible owner of this prosthetic leg, please contact Detective Mary Jane Webb at the Sheriff's Office at 336-634-3232.
