WANTED PERSON - TYKIM NA'QUAN WILLIAMSON

Date of Release: Friday, July 07, 2017

[Wentworth, N.C.]— Rockingham County Sheriff's Deputies are currently seeking TYKIM NA'QUAN WILLIAMSON, 23, of 431 Drum Rd. Reidsville, N.C. after he led Deputies on a vehicle pursuit after he fled during a traffic stop yesterday.

Lt. J. Hutchins initiated a vehicle stop of a 2007 Silver in color BMW 328i on N.C.14 near the Harrington Highway intersection in Eden. Hutchins stopped the vehicle for travelling 95mph in a 55mph zone. TYKIM NA'QUAN WILLIAMSON was found to be the driver of the BMW and refused to produce his license, registration, proof of insurance or otherwise cooperate with Lt. Hutchins during the traffic stop. After numerous requests to comply, Lt. Hutchins informed TYKIM NA'QUAN WILLIAMSON that he was under arrest for willfully and unlawfully resisting, delaying or obstructing a public officer in discharging or attempting to discharge a duty of his office, at which point WILLIAMSON sped away in the vehicle causing Lt. Hutchins to pursue. Lt. Hutchins located the BMW that had been operated by Williamson parked behind the Eden Mall and spotted WILLIAMSON on foot, at which time WILLIAMSON ran away eluding him.

The passenger of the vehicle, ANTHONY JAMAR RANDOLPH, 25, of 506 Wray St. Reidsville, N.C. was also located on foot in the area and was taken into custody on outstanding arrest warrants unrelated to this incident. The BMW that Williamson was operating was seized and impounded by the Rockingham County Sheriff's Office. Numerous arrest warrants, both felony and misdemeanor, are currently on file against TYKIM NA'QUAN WILLIAMSON, who is pictured in this release.
