

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE OFFICIAL NEWS RELEASE

For questions about this release, contact Sgt. Kevin Suthard, Public Information Officer at ksuthard@co.rockingham.nc.us

Rockingham County (N.C.) Sheriff Sam Page Among Those in Attendance at Presidential Round-Table on Immigration Yesterday

Date of Release: Thursday, June 29, 2017

[Wentworth, N.C.]— Rockingham County Sheriff Sam Page was among those in attendance with President Donald J. Trump at a Round-Table discussion on immigration at the White House yesterday afternoon.

Sheriff Page was invited to the White House to participate in the Round-Table discussion on Tuesday afternoon, June 28th to meet with President Trump and with crime victims' families whose lives were affected by illegal immigration. Sheriff Page flew to Washington D.C. earlier in the week for unrelated business and was invited to set in on the discussion by the Trump Administration when they heard he was going to be in town. Also in attendance for the discussion was Bristol County (Mass) Sheriff Tom Hodgson.

"I had an tremendous eye opening event while listening to crime victims tell their stories to President Trump and others present at the White House yesterday", said Sheriff Sam Page.

Left to Right: Bristol County (Mass) Sheriff Tom Hodgson, Rockingham County (N.C.) Sheriff Sam Page

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY
CRIME
STOPPERS
336-349-9683