

To whom it may concern:

I have been working with Christopher Cox for the last couple of months. He was referred to us for grant writing by a friend. Chris has been such an asset to Spirit of Hope ever since. He has been very professional and one can clearly see that he is good at what he does. He operates with intelligence and patience. He is very thorough and that makes us feel very confident in his abilities.

I would recommend Chris to anyone who needs the services of a grant writer.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ellen Jackson". The signature is written in a cursive style with large, flowing loops.
