Lake Water: Lake Water is often calm and mirror-like. It can be used in divination such as scrying, as a portal to the Otherworld, in healing spells and rituals, cleansing, purification, relaxation, or revitalizing spells.

Marsh Water: Marsh Water is often dirty, filled with decaying plant matter. In some cases, the Water is also stagnant. Marsh Water can be used in hexes and curses, to stagnate a situation, to cover or hide something, and even during ancestral work. Marsh Water is often associated with death and decay, making it the perfect Water to use when working with the dead.

Moon Water: Moon Water is water that has been charged under the Moon. The properties of Moon Water changes based upon the phase of the Moon under which it was charged. It can be used for a variety of spells, including healing magic, prosperity rituals, and even curses or hexes.

Mud: Mud is a combination of Water and Earth, and therefore holds magical properties from both. It can be used for grounding, burying objects, and even for cleansing.

Pond Water: Pond water behaves similarly to Lake Water.

Rain Water: Rain Water takes on the property of the storm in which it was born. Sun showers are often used for solar magic, nourishment, and healing, while dreary rain is great for resting, rejuvenation, protection, shadow work, and invisibility. Stormwater, on the other hand, is fierce and can be used in aggressive magics, cursing, hexing, or any spell that needs to pack a punch. Stormwater is also a great base for War Water or even for freezer spells aimed at stopping a person from doing something.

River Water: River Water is fast-moving and therefore is great in spells that need speed or that deal with speeding things up. It is also great for cleansing and purifying yourself and objects, as well as for banishment magic.

Sit your money candle in a bowl of river water to keep money flowing.

Sea Water: Sea Water or Ocean Water is extremely versatile. Because it is already salted, it can be easily turned into Holy Water, or used for cleansing, protection, healing, charming, or banishment. It is also commonly used as a representative of ocean spirits.

Waterfall: Waterfalls are strong flowing bodies of Water. While some are seasonal, many run all year. Like river Water, Waterfall water can be used to remove obstacles, purify, cleanse, or bring movement to a spell. However, waterfalls can also be used in beauty magic and birth rites and rituals.

War Water: A combination of Water and rust that can be used for physical and psychic protection and cleansing, as well as for placing or reversing a curse. Hail is a perfect base for War Water.

Well Water: Well Water is typically calm, clear water that springs up from the Earth. It is most often used for healing and purification as well as for astral travel, hedge riding, and connecting with the Otherworld. The smooth surface is perfect for scrying and water divination. It can also be used for removing curses as well as placing them.

HOW TO CONSECRATE TOOLS

When you consecrate something you're blessing it with the power to carry out a specific intention or goal. You must ALWAYS consecrate your herbs not just throw them on the candle. Give your herbs something to do same with the carrier & essential oils. The more you pray over an herb or oil it becomes more effective. So for example lets say you create an oil for money. Every day or twice a week or three times a week pray over that oil to bring you money. Blow your breath over oil to give it life. Below are some examples:

OIL CONSECRATION EXAMPLE

I consecrate this money oil to attract to me wealth and affluence consistently immediately abundantly.

I consecrate this rose oil to attract to me romance and lovers consistently immediately abundantly.

HERB/ROOT CONSECRATION EXAMPLE

I consecrate this galangal root to attract to me wealth and affluence consistently immediately abundantly.

I consecrate this lovage root to attract to me romance and lovers consistently immediately abundantly.

FIRE SAFETY: BURN CANDLES ON TOP OF METAL PLATES. DO NOT LEAVE CANDLE UNATTENDED WHILE BURNING SOMETIMES THE FLAME CAN TOUCH THE HERBS AND SPARK A LARGER FIRE.

ALWAYS CLEANSE YOUR CANDLES AND TOOLS USING SALT WATER OR SMUDGE THEM OR USE FLORIDA WATER. CLEANSE YOUR SPACE WHERE YOU WILL PERFORM YOUR SPELLS AND PRAYERS WITH INCENSE VIA SMUDGING OR WIPE EVERYTHING DOWN WITH FLORIDA WATER OR SALT WATER

CANDLES ARE ANOINTED WITH OIL SO POWDERS AND HERBS STICK

THINK OF PSALMS AS VERBAL PETITIONS TO GOD

With candle magick to see quick and consistent results you should do rituals twice a week. So redo it twice a week. The longer you chant the stronger the spell so I recommend chanting at least 7 times. Three times too lazy lmao in my opinion but if you do 7 times you'll see results quicker anyway.

You should be doing business rituals weekly if you are an entrepreneur to keep clients coming.

You should do cleansing & protection weekly.

When reciting psalms do so with an open heart you have to mean it. You also have to be innocent if you are working with reversal & hexing psalms or else it backfires because think of it this way who you think God siding with if you hexing through psalms but you the problem. These hexing psalms are messages to God to throw hands on your behalf. So don't be messy it'll be your biggest ass whooping ever.

WHY MY SPELLS NOT WORKING???

- You did not cleanse your home, space and self physically & spiritually
 - You impatient and desperate this is doubt energy which delays things
 - You do bare minimum or nothing at all to align with what you set out if you do an employment ritual that means

apply for jobs go to interviews, if you do a business ritual that means advertise yourself and put in the work

- Haunching the wrong people, toxic people messes up your chakras which throws off your ability to manifest. When two healthy sexual partners have sex this opens a portal to all kinds of opportunities if you do sex magic. So sex magic does has its pros and cons. There is no such thing as sex magick with a toxic partner unless you advanced enough to transmute that energy on a spiritual level. Many can't do that, that is a special skill.

- Stop telling people your plans including best-friends. We all change like the weather we are an evolving species and some people choose the wrong path. People change you never know a person so keep your plans to yourself. Your bestie can envy you unintentionally and block all your blessings.

- You're not healthy. Our health is so important. Unhealthy foods blocks your chakras because its weakening your body with its toxins. For example with women when our wombs are damaged our ability to manifest weakens. This is the house of creation & fertility how can you create with a damaged womb? Even our heart chakras are important if you depressed, heartbroken emotionally off your game your ability to manifest weakens.

- Alcohol & drug abuse also
- Sometimes spells are blocked by our spirits guides aswell

CONJURING SPIRITS

When you conjure spirits I recommend forming a relationship. I was nervous at first when I first started but then I reminded myself that spirits are spiritual beings like us. So they have a personality. Some spirits I work with are St. Expedite, Yemaya, Angels, etc and what makes them consistent with helping me even when I don't ask is my kindness and respect.

RULES

- Do not beg or annoy spirits they hate that
- Do not disrespect them or act entitled no matter what offering you giving
- Always give offerings nothing in life is free. We always make offerings
- Make sure the altar space is cleansed you can wipe down with saltwater or smudge the space with copal or sage
- Do not make promises you can't keep
- Do not lie or try to manipulate them. Spirits can read our hearts they also know everything. They can sense and even smell your fear, they can read very well. Spirits also talk.
- Big requests means big offerings
- Fruits, Veggies, Cooked Meat, basically home-cooked meals are great offerings. Alcohol like rum, whiskey, wine, desserts like cakes and brownies any sweets are great. Flowers also lovely real ones.
- Shower before conjuring be presentable think of it as an interview
- Do not offer spirits plastic offerings, or fake jewelry
- Everything needs to be organic from the food to the gifts organic and natural. They know it's expensive that's why they watching how serious you're going to take them.
- Always have a glass of clean spring water on the altar this is a portal for the spirits to come through not just the flame which is why you may see bubbles in the glass. But also bubbles can mean spiritual activity. Some spirits do consume the water for energy so you may see the water start evaporating over time.

- Leave altar food up for 3 days if the food still looks okay on day 3 that means the spirits loved the food. If the food looks moldy or bad like spoil that means the spirits dislike the food. If the food looks dried up not moldy or spoil but just dry that means the spirit definitely liked the food so much they immediately consumed the energy which is why the food looks dried up.

- Dispose food in trash or put it out in nature or bury it I usually toss the food by a tree for the animals to munch on think of it as giving back to nature.

- No cursing at the altar if you slip just say forgive me.

- Keep altar clean snuff out candles afterwards

- Keep altars out of bedrooms you'll be restless due to the spiritual activity

When I conjure I cook and shower and then summon my spirits.

FIRST: (Calls on the name 3 times)

ME: Hey/Hello/Hi (Spirit name) I come to you for (State what I want) immediately and abundantly. Thank you in advance (Spirit name) I left an offering of food here for you as an appreciation. I now close out this summoning with gratitude.

I recommend only working with a few spirits that you actually like and respect. I treat my spirits like friends/companions I talk to them like I would an advisor sometimes. Sometimes I'll cook make them a plate and just ask for advice after venting to them. For some you may hear them reply telepathically, via dreams or verbally. I like to use tarot to communicate with them. I'll ask them a question and pull the cards whatever comes out is their answer.

I recommend doing a reading first with Spirit to see if it's a good idea to work with certain spirits. For example before I jumped into conjuring I was paranoid and uneasy to conjure. Even though I admire spirits majority dislikes humans. They don't trust humans to keep their commitment that's why when people don't hold their end of the bargain the spirits attack physically or in other ways like misfortune, money losses, relationship problems, headaches, illness etc. But anyway I had to do a reading and ask Spirit was it a good idea to work with so and so. I usually got a bunch of yes and a few no due to the incompatibility.

Conjuring isn't for everyone. It's a big responsibility. You must form a relationship. You must prove yourself worthy of their time and help. I remember when I was under spiritual attack I had worked with saint Expedite his candle kept turning black and cracking and I felt so bad because he was fighting but the demonic beings that was sent after me was way too much. So I went to his altar and told him it's okay don't protect me. I don't want you hurt. The same night I got downloads of spells to do to protect myself I did them and edges were snatched. Not only that but because I cared for him like a true friend word spread and certain spirits came to my aid. Now I work with them and have been for years.

You see spirits talk. The spirit world is an invisible version of ours. If you doing right by a spirit and want to work with another that spirit in your court can vouch for you on the other side. So now I work with all kinds of deities and spirits.

I do not feed my spirits daily that's real expensive. I instead feed them on a day I dedicate to them and go from there. This is easier and cheaper to do.

I recommend limit your group to five spirits/deities to work with or down to one or two until you ready for more mouths to feed lmao.

After conjuring you must close portals. Any time you light candles for spellwork you opened a portal. Anytime you conjure portals are opened. Always close them.

CLOSING RITUAL:

Bring out the heavy duty incense such as palo santo or dragon's blood. Burn then recite three times :

All spiritual and astral portals, doors and realms are closed immediately in the name of the holy spirit.

Or

Recite psalm 68:1-3 three times while smudging the room. I always do this especially after conjuring and doing rituals to banish out unwanted spirits and evil from home.

Thank you everyone for reading hopefully this book inspires you. 😊
