

Organizational LEADERS

Prioritize Your Safety

Security Team Training

- Comprehensive, sustainable training in managing threats under stress.

Facility Security Assessment

- Thorough evaluation of your facility's security posture and vulnerabilities.

Active Threat Procedures

- Trainable, repeatable tactics for responding to unique active threats.

SOP Development

- Formal Standard Operating Procedures specific to your organization.

Can You?

Can your team respond to external threats and chaos under pressure, while staying focused?

Can your team spot internal vulnerabilities, like those born of political hyperbole or mental and emotional angst, and proactively mitigate them?

At OSS, we deliver tailored security education and prevention services for diverse organizations. Our offerings include comprehensive facility vulnerability and security assessments, personalized team training, active threat response procedures, and standard operating procedure (SOP) development to build organizational and personal resilience.

Why Invest?

Security awareness protects people, assets, and operations. It cultivates preparedness, reduces risks, and supports a safer work environment, and by extension, safer individuals. Security awareness influences all facets of success and shapes procedures that offer clear direction and purpose for your team.

Whether you lead a large corporation, small business, public institution, school, or church, our programs provide key insights to strengthen security by stressing preparedness and prevention. You will build a stronger grasp of team capabilities and resolve through education and practical, realistic training. Partner with us for proven strategies. The results provide enduring value.

Security Consulting

Leaders who invest in the safety and security of their people and assets gain far more than documents and procedures, they gain formalized excellence, sharply reduced liability, and peace of mind with the total confidence that their organization will respond to any emergency as one cohesive team with clear purpose. Schedule your no-obligation consultation today.

Contact: edgarmills@ospreyshootingsolutions.com

Visit the website: ospreyshootingsolutions.com/consulting

Robert Edgar Mills, founder of Osprey Shooting Solutions, is a 25-year Army veteran retired out of 10th Special Forces Group. He and the OSS team take great pride in bringing professional, practical, relevant training to a broad spectrum of clients. OSS will help you achieve and exceed your organizational and individual goals.

