

The Indianapolis Fly Casters (IFC) was founded in 1968. The IFC is made up of men who share a common interest in the wonderful sport of fly fishing. Monthly dinner meetings with outstanding speakers and excellent fishing programs are always spiced with the cheerful conversation and fellowship of friendly fishermen. Fly tying instruction, casting programs, conservation projects, fishing outings, etc. are typical club activities. A monthly publication, The Armchair Angler, serves as a newsletter and informs our members of upcoming activities. A minimum age of 21 is required for membership.

Annual dues are $35.00 per year for regular members and $20.00 per year for out of state members.

The purpose of the Indianapolis Fly Casters club:

1. To provide social contact among men interested in fly fishing.
2. To share our knowledge and experiences so as to improve our fly fishing ability as well as other aspects of the sport.
3. To assist, where feasible, in the protection and improvement of fishing waters which have a direct relationship to fly fishing as a sport.
4. To encourage and support others to become fly fishermen and true sportsmen.
