George Bell women's league is a community based, non- competitive league designed for a recreational player looking to have fun! Come out, have fun and meet new people or have the chance to play with some familiar faces.

People are welcomed to sign up as a group or just an individual. Teams will need to appoint a team captain and in doing so the team captain and arena manager will be the ones in contact the most, they will work together in ensuring that the teams are as even as possible so everyone has a great time. What that means is there can be trades in the first 5 games. By signing this form you are agreeing and willing to make trades possible.
