June TMC Meeting Outcomes

Strategic Planning Committee

- Identity/Responsibility Statement (Who)
- Driving Force, AKA Mission Statement, Refine Driving Force,
- Communication, Collaborative & Implementation
- Central to Strategic Plan - Lineal knowledge, lived experience and journey generational experience (TEK)
- Mapping of Issues (WHAT)
- (How) - Educate, Uplift, Build Relationships, Communicate, Implement

Grants Committee

- Received an award from Coastal Quest for an activity book
- Need Procedures drawn out for Future Grant Proposals. To better understand the needs of the tribe, we Ask and Listen. Build Relationships.
- Look at ways to create projects that come from tribal asks, to ensure full support. What do Tribes need what would they like to see?

Kelp Connected Communities

Report from Jocelyn Enevoldsen (she, her, hers)
Graduate Student, Environmental Science & Management
Natural Resources Graduate Program at Cal Poly Humboldt
Email: je150@humboldt.edu

- How are you connected to the kelp forest system (which includes seaweed, fish, abalone, and more)?
 - From your perspective, is the kelp system you're connected to healthy?
 - Have you experienced changes in the kelp system you're connected to?
 - Do you think people should intervene in the kelp system?
- What are your preferences about different interventions in the kelp system?
 - How do you share and receive information about the kelp system?

23RD ANNUAL CAHTO COAST WALK SATURDAY, JUNE 24TH 2023

Walking for Wellness

Our walk begins at Wilderness Lodge Road in Branscomb, California and ends at Westport Union Landing in Westport. The walk is nearly a ten mile hike up and down paved, steep, and curvy hills. The terrain makes us more appreciative and empathetic of our ancestor's struggles. Each year we have an increase in the number of participants. Most choose to walk, but others jog or even ride scooters and bikes. Please join us as we walk in our ancestor's footsteps. This year we walk for wellness in our communities.

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

"Mutt Peyii Uumirrp"
This Land We Love

Tribal EPA & US EPA Region 9 Annual Conference is seeking attendees, speaker submissions, vendors, and nominations for the Conner Byestewa Jr. Award

The Tribal EPA & U.S. EPA Region 9 Conference is looking for dynamic, relevant, innovative, and exciting content/Speakers from tribal and USEPA presenters.

While we welcome traditional panel presentations, we are also asking that you consider ways to make your session interactive and engaging for participants. As you develop your proposal, consider the different formats you can choose for sharing your knowledge and pick the one that you think will work best to keep your audience focused, involved, and active.
