THE MARKET AT STONE HILL BARN TERMS AND CONDITIONS :

- An authorized representative of the business/organization must sign the application at the bottom of the application paper stating they have read and agree to the following terms & conditions or they will not be considered to participate.
- All applications are subject to approval by Stone Hill Barn LLC Event Coordinator. Stone Hill Barn reserves the right to decline or prohibit any exhibit or vendor. This reservation covers persons, things, conduct, printed matter, advertising, souvenirs, emblems and all else that affects this event
- Vendors are responsible for collecting their own local and state sales taxes. Each vendor acknowledges they have all the required regulatory permits, licenses, insurance, etc. to be in compliance with all rules and regulations that may apply to sales of merchandise.
- Any vendor selling food items at their booth is responsible to make sure you are in compliance with any and all Health Department codes and regulations prior to event day. If you are required to have a license, you must obtain one and display it at your booth. If the Health Department attends the event, inspects your booth and you are not in compliance, you must either make your booth compliant or you will be asked to leave the event without reimbursement. If you are selling homemade pet treats, you must be licensed as well. Visit AAFCO.org for regulations.
- Payments received from vendors that have been confirmed will not receive any refunds.
- Representatives of Stone Hill Barn have the right to refuse or remove any items displayed or for sale found to be in bad taste or inappropriate. All items deemed inappropriate must be removed immediately by vendor or they are at risk being asked to leave the event. No refund will be issued.
- No vendor will have exclusivity selling merchandise or providing services for any one type of product or service. Our goal is to provide an event/show that has a wide variety of items for sale.
- Although we can provide assistance for loading/unloading items for your booth at an additional charge, each vendor is responsible for any and all equipment needed to unload and load supplies. Booth location & set up days and times will be announced within 2 weeks of the event. Time on Thursday & Friday morning will be available for load in/set up. There will be no water, sewer or electrical hook-ups provided. Security professionals will be provided from Thursday through Sunday.
- Vendors are responsible for any power strips/extra extension cords. All lights being ran off our circuits must be LED.
- Vendors may not tear booth down early. Early tear down may disqualify vendor from future shows.
- No beverages containing alcohol are allowed at this event. Smoking is not allowed in any of the buildings. • Pets are not allowed. Working service dogs are permitted only. • If vendors bring children to the event, the children must remain at the vendor's booth area or with an adult guardian and well behaved at all times. They are not permitted to wander around the event without adult supervision.
- Vendors agree to allow Stone Hill Barn LLC to use any photographs or videos taken at the event for promotional purposes without compensation. All photos or videos taken and used in promotions are property of Stone Hill Barn. Vendors will be given credit for advertisement pictures on our Facebook/Website/Instagram.
- Vendors are not guaranteed a booth until the application has been received and approved. Vendors will be notified via email once approved and payment must be received by check within 14 days of approval.
