Two Worlds Dance Damti Method Summer Program

Bridging Deaf, Hearing and All Abilities through Movement & Dance

The Damti Method “Art of Inclusion”

Two Worlds Dance is happy to offer a ten-session summer program, led by certified Damti Method Facilitators and Interpreters.

The program utilizes the ‘Damti Method’, a philosophy and curriculum developed by Jill & Amnon Damti. The method uses movement and dance to create a unique, inclusive and supportive environment between deaf, hard of hearing and hearing participants of all abilities.

- Program includes:
  - Dance Warm-Up and Technique
  - Pantomime
  - Self-expression & Communication through Movement
  - Introduction of Various Dance & Music Styles and Genres
  - ‘Shalom Circle’ of Sharing, Inclusion and Support
  - Student showcase for families & friends at the end of the program
- Expected Outcome:
  - Improved communication, collaboration and cooperation between participants
  - Improved proficiency in various styles of dance and movement
  - Improved self-confidence and leadership skills

"I'm so grateful with life that put in my path two great and amazing human beings that touched my and my Daughters' hearts. Keep spreading your great message and transforming people and planting the great seed of inclusion, love, acceptance, equality, and making kids believe that they have no limits and can become anything they dream." -
