Since it is established that Mahayana Sutras have anonymous authorships, and that words were put in the mouth of Lord Buddha by the anonymous authors of the Mahayana Sutras, the hermeneutics of Mahayana Sutras is crystal clear.

Nothing in any Mahayana Sutra is Buddhavachana. The Mahayana Sutras reflect the views of their authors.

Therefore, all that is in the Mahayana Sutras need to be compared with Buddhavachana and all the things in the Mahayana Sutras that contradict Buddhavachana are to be summarily discarded.
