This document shall henceforth be known as the Kolkata Declaration of May, 2020.

By this Kolkata Declaration of May, 2020,

Indian Buddhist leader and CEDG, Bhattacharya International Buddhist Foundation, Upasaka Dr. Amartya Kumar Bhattacharya stresses that the adherents of the big religions of the world, Buddhism, Islam and Christianity, who combined cover almost the entirety of the land surface of the earth, must live in peace, harmony and co-operation in a spirit of friendship and fraternity. Upasaka Dr. Amartya Kumar Bhattacharya insists that the peace of the world is paramount and that it is essential and vital that the Buddhists of the world work towards that end shoulder-to-shoulder and in a spirit of close co-operation with the Muslims and the Christians of the world.

At the same time, Upasaka Dr. Amartya Kumar Bhattacharya stresses the necessity of the Buddhists of the world living in peace, harmony and co-operation in a spirit of friendship and fraternity with the Jews, Sikhs, Jainas and Zoroastrians of the world.
