The Western Dressage Association® of America (WDAA) and the Pennsylvania Western Dressage Association (PAWDA) are 501c3 educational non-profit organizations focused on providing a model of horsemanship that optimizes the partnership of horse and rider for their mutual benefit. The mission of the WDAA and PAWDA is to honor the horse, to value the relationship between the horse and rider, and to celebrate the legacy of the American! West, which it focuses on through its offerings of educational opportunities and events to the equestrian community.
