

Getting Your Ducks in a Row So You are Ready to Show

Consistent in Preparation

The so-called hard stuff isn't as hard as making ourselves go do all the little steps that, when added up, make what once was hard become easy. ~Denny Emerson

Today I will do what others won't so that tomorrow I can accomplish what others can't.

Prep of Horse and Rider

- Realistic goal, safe
- Small steps
- Lizard Brain – butterflies in formation
- Flexible timeline
- Okay to change your goals
- You win if you learned
- Don't focus on ribbons

What is different:

- You may use your voice
- You may sit the free jog
- You do not need a noseband or throatlatch
- You do not need a bit – see what is legal
- You may use various reins – see what is legal
- Your horse may wear boots
- You must drop the bit for tack check

What is legal:

What English riders consider a hackamore (right ) is not legal

Various reins are allowed - see link below

<https://www.usef.org/documents/ruleBook/2016/30-WD.pdf>

A bitless bridle is legal

Home Barn

- In arena
- Ride test movements
- Ride test
- Hand walk at show; rider volunteer
- Warm-up at show
- Enter show – enter test that is easy

2023 WDAA World Championship Show

The 2023 WDAA Western Dressage World Championship Show will be held in Guthrie, OK at the Lazy E Arena, Sept 26th-Sept 30th.

I have thrown a lot of information at you and you are likely feeling a bit overwhelmed but you can do this if you set a realistic goal

efforts repeated day in and day out

Success is the sum of small

Alice

break it into small steps

Remember that BIG things are achieved not all at once, but one day at a time

build confidence

are willing to adjust

enjoy the journey

are prepared

Luck is what happens when preparation meets opportunity.

and remember we are able to compete because of organizers, officials, landowners, and volunteers and behave like a guest and say thank you.
