About the World Dance Group

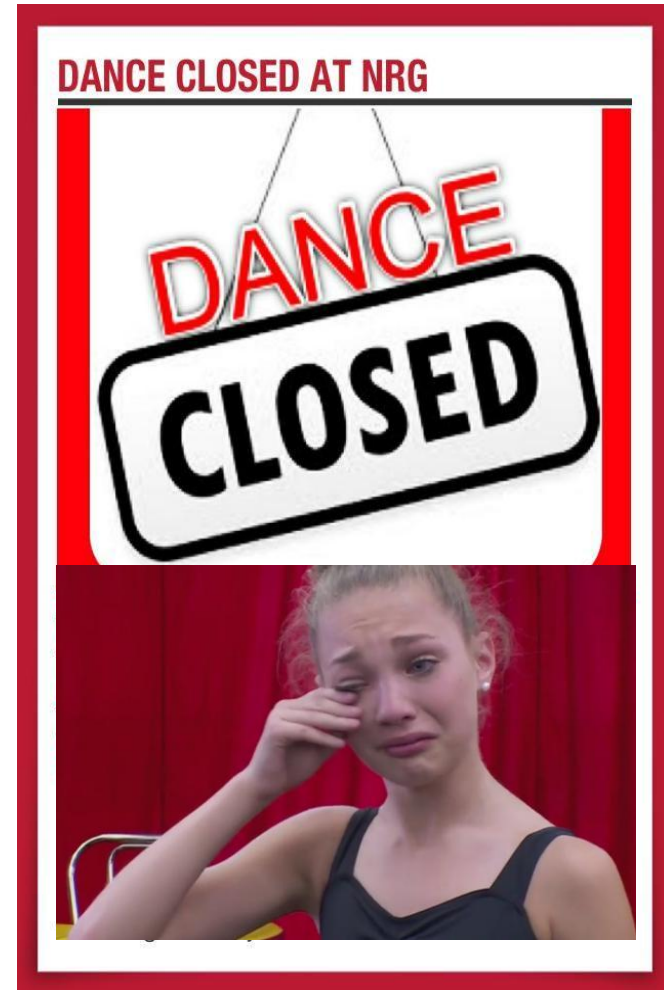

Minority owned business based in Atlanta GA and now with offices in San Juan, Puerto Rico; producer of Major Sports, Music and Entertainment Experiences

Our Mission:

"The World Dance Group is dedicated to improving the world by sharing the beauty and passion of dance with artists and fans worldwide. By empowering a global and diverse community of dancers through latest technologies and celebrating the best talent by hosting professional dance competitions, this innovative company is democratizing dance, providing a global stage for elite dancers and raising the visibility of the positive benefits and value of dancing whether as a recreational activity or for professional competitions. By uniting the world in the celebration of multiples genres of dance, together we are changing the world one dance at a time'.

Background

- The Corona virus has disrupted modern society including the dancing community
- Virtually every dancer in the world is unemployed with festivals, concerts, conventions canceling events and closing their doors.
- During the pandemic and beyond there is an increase need to generate extra cash
- Online sales has increased dramatically and representing the biggest business opportunity of the century.
