Dear brothers and sisters in Christ:

From time to time, someone asks why a particular Sunday Mass cannot be offered for a loved one. The reason is simple, and deeply rooted in the Church’s law and pastoral care. Canon 534 §1 requires that every pastor must offer one Mass each Sunday and holy day “pro populo”—for the people entrusted to him. This intention is not optional, nor can it be replaced by any other intention. It is the pastor’s solemn duty to place the entire parish—living and deceased—upon the altar before God.

Here in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, particular law allows up to three intentions at any Mass, but the Pro Populo Mass is the one exception: it must have only that single intention, offered exclusively for the spiritual good of all parishioners. For many years this was not practiced consistently at Our Lady of Sorrows, but we are now bringing our parish into full conformity with the universal norms of the Church.

Please know that there are always many weekday Masses available for your special intentions, and a weekday Mass is no less efficacious for the soul of your loved one than a Sunday Mass. Every Mass is the one Sacrifice of Christ, infinitely powerful in grace.

Remember All Soul’s Day – Nov 2 – is fast approaching; Envelopes are now available at the back of the Church. Blessedly, there’s no limit to the number of intentions for those Masses. More on that next week. If you have any questions or concerns, I warmly invite you to speak with me. It is my joy to walk with you in faith and to help you honor your loved ones through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

In Christ,
Fr. Christopher Bernabe

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

De vez en cuando alguien pregunta por qué una Misa dominical no puede ofrecerse por un ser querido. La razón es sencilla y profundamente arraigada en la ley y el cuidado pastoral de la Iglesia. El Canon 534 §1 exige que todo párroco celebre una Misa cada domingo y día de precepto “pro populo” —por el pueblo que le ha sido confiado. Esta intención no es opcional ni puede sustituirse por otra. Es el deber sagrado del párroco poner a toda la comunidad —vivos y difuntos— sobre el altar ante Dios.

Aquí en la Arquidiócesis de Santa Fe, la ley particular permite hasta tres intenciones en cada Misa, pero la Misa Pro Populo es la única excepción: debe tener solo esa intención, ofrecida exclusivamente por el bien espiritual de todos los feligreses. Durante muchos años esta práctica no se observó de manera constante en Nuestra Señora de los Dolores, pero ahora estamos trayendo nuestra parroquia a plena conformidad con las normas universales de la Iglesia.

Recuerden que hay muchas Misas entre semana disponibles para sus intenciones especiales, y una Misa diaria no es menos eficaz para el alma de su ser querido que una Misa dominical. Cada Misa es el único Sacrificio de Cristo, infinitamente poderoso en gracia.

El Día de los Fieles Difuntos —2 de noviembre— se acerca; los sobres ya están disponibles al fondo del templo. Benditamente, no hay límite en el número de intenciones para esas Misas. Más sobre eso la próxima semana.

Si tienen preguntas o inquietudes, los invito con cariño a hablar conmigo. Es mi alegría caminar con ustedes en la fe y ayudarles a honrar a sus seres queridos mediante el Santo Sacrificio de la Misa.

En Cristo,
P. Christopher Bernabe
