Solemnity of All Saints

Come to me, all you who labor & are burdened, & I will give you rest, says the Lord.
(Matthew 11:28)

Vengan a mí todos los que están fatigados y agobiados por la carga y yo les daré alivio, dice el Señor.
(Mateo 11:28)

Rescue a Soul – or 30 – This November

November is dedicated in a special way to prayer for the faithful departed. Sacred Scripture teaches: "It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins" (2 Maccabees 12:46).

Praying for the dead is not merely a pious custom; it is one of the Spiritual Works of Mercy and a sacred Christian duty. The Church, in her maternal generosity, grants indulgences applicable to the souls in Purgatory throughout November. One of the simplest ways to gain them is by visiting a cemetery and praying for the departed. The prayer need not be long. Even a brief prayer offered with faith is enough. You do not even need to leave your vehicle; simply entering the cemetery and praying for the dead fulfills the visit.

For our elderly, infirm, and homebound parishioners, take heart. The Church allows those who cannot physically visit a cemetery to obtain the indulgence by prayerfully uniting themselves to the faithful who are making the visit and offering prayers for the Poor Souls from home.

Why should we be so eager to help these souls? St. John Paul II reminded us that "Praying for the souls in purgatory is the highest act of supernatural charity." Venerable Fulton Sheen likewise encouraged the faithful: "As we enter Heaven, we will see them, so many of them, coming towards us and thanking us. We will ask who they are, and they will say, 'A poor soul you prayed for in Purgatory.'" What a remarkable exchange of mercy! It costs us almost nothing: a few moments, a short prayer, a brief visit to the cemetery. Yet for the Poor Souls it can mean eternal glory.

Let us make every effort to visit a cemetery and pray for the dead each day during November. There are no souls more grateful and generous toward us than those whom our prayers have helped reach Heaven. Once before the throne of God, they will surely remember their benefactors.

God Love You All,
Fr. Christopher Bernabe

Rescata un Alma – o 30 – Este Noviembre

Noviembre está dedicado de manera especial a la oración por los fieles difuntos. La Sagrada Escritura nos enseña: "Es, pues, una idea santa y piadosa orar por los difuntos, para que sean liberados de sus pecados" (2 Macabeos 12,46). Orar por los muertos no es simplemente una devoción piadosa; es una de las Obras de Misericordia Espirituales y un sagrado deber cristiano.

La Iglesia, en su generosidad maternal, concede indulgencias aplicables a las almas del Purgatorio durante todo el mes de noviembre. Una de las maneras más sencillas de ganarlas es visitando un cementerio y orando por los difuntos. La oración no tiene que ser larga. Incluso una breve oración ofrecida con fe es suficiente. Ni siquiera es necesario bajarse del vehículo; basta con entrar al cementerio y rezar por los difuntos para realizar esta visita piadosa.

A nuestros feligreses ancianos, enfermos o confinados en casa, les decimos: ¡ánimo! La Iglesia permite que quienes no pueden visitar físicamente un cementerio puedan obtener la indulgencia uniéndose espiritualmente a los fieles que hacen la visita y ofreciendo desde sus hogares oraciones por las Benditas Almas del Purgatorio.

¿Por qué debemos estar tan deseosos de ayudar a estas almas? San Juan Pablo II nos recordó que: "Orar por las almas del purgatorio es el acto más elevado de caridad sobrenatural." Asimismo, el Venerable Fulton Sheen alentaba a los fieles con estas palabras: "Cuando entremos en el Cielo, veremos a muchos de ellos venir hacia nosotros para darnos las gracias. Les preguntaremos quiénes son, y responderán: 'Soy un alma del purgatorio por la que tú oraste.'"

¡Qué admirable intercambio de misericordia! Nos cuesta casi nada: unos cuantos momentos, una breve oración, una corta visita al cementerio. Sin embargo, para las Benditas Almas puede significar la gloria eterna. Hagamos todo lo posible por visitar un cementerio y rezar por los difuntos cada día de noviembre. No hay almas más agradecidas y generosas con nosotros que aquellas a quienes nuestras oraciones han ayudado a llegar al Cielo. Una vez ante el trono de Dios, ciertamente recordarán a sus benefactores.

¡Dios los bendiga a todos!
P. Christopher Bernabe
