PRAYER FOR A NEW POPE

O God, who chose your servant Pope Leo

XIV in succession to the Apostle Peter as shepherd of the whole flock, look favorably on our prayers and grant that as Vicar of Christ on earth, the whole Church may be in communion with him in the bond of unity, love and peace; so that in you, the shepherd of souls, all may know the truth and attain life eternal . Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

churches on his way to work, which often made him late. He would also pray during his work. When some of his colleagues complained to the owner, de Vegas went to check on him. He saw two angels plowing the fields. He decided that, as long as the work was being done, he would not intervene. Isidore had a great love for the poor. He would often invite the poor and hungry he met on his walk home from work to join him and Maria for dinner. Maria would keep a pot of stew on the hearth to feed their guests. One day Isidore brought home many more people than usual. Half way through serving them Maria came to Isidore and told him that the pot was empty.

Isidore told her to check it again, and there was plenty for everyone. God provides!

He also had a love for animals. One winter day he was walking to the mill with a sack of wheat to be ground.

He came across a flock of birds pecking at the frozen ground for food. He emptied half the sack of wheat to feed them.

A passerby warned him that his owner would be upset. When he arrived at the mill, the sack was full.

When grounded, it produces three times the usual amount. God provides.

Isidore was canonized a saint on March 22, 1622, along with Ignatius Loyola, Francis Xavier, Thresa of Avila, and Phiip Neri, all of whom were people of wealth, education, and influence. Isidore was a simple illiterate laborer.

Some things we can learn from St. Isidore the Farmer:

- The dignity of work •Prayer energizes our work •Love and service to the poor and hungry •God provides
- Love for animals and God's creation •Simple laborers, ( us simple people), can be canonized saints.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER QUINTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

FOCUS: Love is necessary to spread the kingdom of God.

Jesus tells his Apostles that all will know they are his disciples if they love one another. We are called to follow this command to love, so that God can use us to draw the world to himself. This is what Paul and Barnabas are endeavoring to do in the first reading; they are proclaiming the Gospel out of love for God and his people so that the reign of his love might spread throughout the world.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Paul and Barnabas visit the early Christian communities, encouraging them to persevere in faith and appointing elders to lead them. In the second reading, John shares a vision of the new Jerusalem prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. In the Gospel, after Judas has left, Jesus tells his friends that all will know they are his disciples if they love one another as he has loved them. That is his new commandment.

ENFOQUE: El amor es necesario para extender el reino de Dios.

Jesús dice a sus Apóstoles que todos sabrán que son sus discípulos, si se aman los unos a los otros. Estamos llamados a seguir este mandato de amar para que Dios pueda utilizarnos y así atraer al mundo hacia sí. Esto es lo que Pablo y Bernabé se esfuerzan por hacer en la primera lectura; proclaman el Evangelio por amor a Dios y a su pueblo para que el reino de su amor se extienda por todo el mundo.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

Pablo y Bernabé visitan las primeras comunidades cristianas, animándolas a perseverar en la fe y nombrando ancianos para dirigir las. En la segunda lectura, Juan comparte una visión de la nueva Jerusalén embellecida como una novia preparada para recibir a su esposo. En el Evangelio, después de que Judas se haya marchado, Jesús dice a sus amigos que todos sabrán que son sus discípulos, si se aman los unos a los otros como él les ha amado. Ese es su nuevo mandamiento.
