FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: Although we may know despair, we are called to live in hope.

Despair and grief are part of the human condition, and are often brought on because of loss or suffering. In Christ, however, we experience hope and healing. As disciples working to build the kingdom of God on earth, let us, like Saint Paul, willingly take the Gospel to others and share our hope freely with them.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Job expresses his despair, describing life without hope or happiness. Saint Paul writes that he has no reason to boast – that preaching the Gospel is an obligation. Thus, he offers the Gospel free of charge and has become all things to all, to save at least some. In the Gospel, Jesus touches and cures Simon's mother-in-law, as well as many others, throughout the whole of Galilee.

ENFOQUE: Aunque conozcamos la desesperación, estamos llamados a vivir con esperanza.

La desesperación y el dolor son parte de la condición humana y, a menudo, se producen debido a una pérdida o sufrimiento. En Cristo, sin embargo, experimentamos esperanza y sanación. Como discípulos que trabajan para construir el reino de Dios en la tierra, como San Pablo, llevemos con gusto el Evangelio a otros y compartamos nuestra esperanza libremente con ellos.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

Job expresa su desesperación, describiendo una vida sin esperanza ni felicidad. San Pablo escribe que no tiene motivos para gloriarse, que predicar el Evangelio es una obligación. Así, ofrece gratuitamente el Evangelio y que se ha hecho todo, para que por todos los medios salve a algunos. En el Evangelio, Jesús toca y cura a la suegra de Simón, así como a muchas otras, por toda Galilea.
