FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

FOCUS: God sent Christ into the world not to condemn, but to save and to heal.

Throughout history, humans have had a tendency to choose what is the easier – but not necessarily the better – path. The easier path often leads away from God and into the darkness of sin. Christ’s way is the way of light. We are called to be his disciples, to let go of preferences and actions which keep us in the dark, and to take the path which leads to truth and goodness.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

The first reading recounts the failure of God’s people to listen to his prophets and repent. Their wickedness results in their ruin and exile to Babylon. In the second reading, Paul tells the Ephesians they are saved by grace through faith, which is a gift from God. In the Gospel, Jesus tells Nicodemus that God sent his Son into the world, not to condemn it, but to save it.

ENFOQUE: Dios envió a Cristo al mundo no para condenar, sino para salvar y sanar.

A lo largo de la historia, los seres humanos han tenido la tendencia a elegir el camino más fácil, pero no necesariamente el mejor. El camino más fácil a menudo lleva lejos de Dios y hacia la oscuridad del pecado. El camino de Cristo es el camino de la luz. Estamos llamados a ser sus discípulos, a dejar ir las preferencias y acciones que nos mantienen en la oscuridad, y a tomar el camino que conduce a la verdad y al bien.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

La primera lectura relata el fracaso del pueblo de Dios en escuchar a sus profetas y arrepentirse. Su maldad resulta en su ruina y exilio a Babilonia. En la segunda lectura, Pablo les dice a los efesios que son salvos por gracia mediante la fe, que es un regalo de Dios. En el Evangelio, Jesús le dice a Nicodemo que Dios envió a su Hijo al mundo, no para condenarlo, sino para salvarlo.

Good news we have met our goal for the “Catholic Extension” Grant. We want to thank everyone that made donations, with-out your commitment this could not have been accomplished.
