FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

FOCUS: We are God’s children; we are the flock of the Good Shepherd, who lays down his life for us.

God loves us so much that we are not simply called God’s children, but in fact are God’s children now. This love is that of a good shepherd, who knows and cherishes his sheep, and who, unlike others, will sacrifice his own life for the safety of his flock.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

In the first reading, Peter proclaims to the elders that the cripple who has been healed and saved was done so in the name of Jesus. This is the Jesus that they had crucified and whom God raised from the dead. The First Letter of John says that through the love of God we are now the children of God; what we shall become is not yet revealed. In the Gospel, Jesus says, I am the good shepherd...[who] lays down his life for the sheep.

ENFOQUE: Somos hijos de Dios; somos el rebaño del Buen Pastor, que da su vida por nosotros.

Dios nos ama tanto que no se nos llama simplemente hijos de Dios, sino que ahora somos hijos de Dios. Este amor es el de un buen pastor, que conoce y cuida a sus ovejas y que, a diferencia de los demás, sacrificará su propia vida por la seguridad de su rebaño.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

En la primera lectura, Pedro proclama a los ancianos que el lisiado que ha sido sanado y salvo lo ha hecho en el nombre de Jesús. Este es el Jesús que habían crucificado y a quien Dios resucitó de entre los muertos. La Primera Carta de Juan dice que por el amor de Dios ahora somos hijos de Dios; en lo que nos convertiremos aún no ha sido revelado. En el Evangelio, Jesús dice: Yo soy el buen pastor ... [que] da Su vida por las ovejas.
