O Lord

As he died in Christ, may he also share in His Resurrection.

May his soul and all of the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen

We extend our sympathy and prayers to the family.

John the Baptist was a contemporary of Christ who was known for evangelization and his baptizing of Jesus Christ.

John the Baptist was born through the intercession of God to Zachariah and Elizabeth, who was otherwise too old to bear children. According to scriptures, the Angel Gabriel visited Elizabeth and Zachariah to tell them they would have a son and that they should name him John. Zachariah was skeptical and for this he was rendered mute until the time his son was born and named John, in fulfillment of God's will.

When Elizabeth was pregnant with John, she was visited by Mary, and John leapt in her womb. This revealed to Elizabeth that the child Mary carried was to be the Son of God.

John began public ministry around 30 AD, and was known for attracting large crowds across the province of Judaea and around the Jordan River. When Jesus came to him to be baptized, John recognized him and said, "It is I who need baptism from you."

Jesus told John to baptize Him anyway, which he did, whereupon the heavens opened, and the Spirit of God was seen like a dove. The voice of God spoke, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." John instructed his followers to turn to Christ, calling Him the "Lamb of God" and these people were among the first Christians.

Following his baptism of Christ, John's popularity grew so much that he alarmed King Herod. Herod ordered him arrested and imprisoned.

John spoke with Herod on several occasions and condemned his marriage to his half-brother's wife.

This condemnation would be his downfall as King Herod promised to grant a wish to his daughter. In revenge for John the Baptist's condemnation of her mother's scandalous marriage to Herod, she asked for John's head. King Herod reluctantly obliged. John the Baptist died sometime between 33 and 36 AD.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
DECIMO TERCERO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIA

FOCUS: Jesus makes clear that there is an urgency in leaving the things of the world behind to follow him.

Jesus calls each of us to give up the things of the world, to repent of our sins, and to follow him no matter the cost. He does not violate our freedom, however; he allows us to choose whether we will stay where we are or follow the way of the cross, which ultimately leads to everlasting life.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

In the first reading, Elijah passes Elisha and casts his mantle on him. Elisha asks if he may go home and kiss his parents goodbye. In the second reading, Paul writes that Christ set us free from slavery, and explains that freedom comes through the greatest commandment – to love. In the Gospel, Jesus tells a man who wishes to follow him that the kingdom of God requires following him in that very moment.

ENFOQUE: Jesús deja claro que hay una urgencia en dejar atrás las cosas del mundo para seguirlo.

Jesús nos llama a cada uno de nosotros a renunciar a las cosas del mundo, a arrepentirnos de nuestros pecados y seguirlo sin importar el costo. Sin embargo, no viola nuestra libertad; nos permite elegir si permanecer donde estamos o seguir el camino de la cruz, que finalmente conduce a la vida eterna.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

En la primera lectura, Elías pasa junto a Eliseo y le echa el manto. Eliseo pregunta si puede irse a casa y despedirse de sus padres. En la segunda lectura, Pablo escribe que Cristo nos liberó de la esclavitud y explica que la libertad viene a través del mandamiento más grande: amar. En el Evangelio, Jesús le dice a un hombre que desea acompañarlo, que el reino de Dios requiere que lo siga en ese mismo momento.
