EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: Following foolishly after the things of this world leads us in the wrong direction.

Temptation is all around us. It is tempting to get ahead at the expense of others, and we are tempted to put material wealth ahead of spiritual wealth. Following Christian virtues requires grace, and takes practice and hard work. Let us pray for that grace, For what profit comes to man from all the toil and anxiety of heart if we are not rich in what matters to God?

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Our first reading speaks about of the foolishness of vanity, and misdirected labor. Saint Paul writes to the Colossians, instructing them not to return to their old way of life, but to seek what is above. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the crowd to Take care to guard against all greed, and then relates the parable of the foolish rich man.

ENFOQUE: Seguir tontamente las cosas de este mundo nos lleva en la dirección equivocada.

La tentación está a nuestro alrededor. Es tentador salir adelante a expensas de otros, y estamos tentados a poner la riqueza material por encima de la riqueza espiritual. Seguir las virtudes cristianas requiere gracia, y requiere práctica y trabajo duro. Oremos por esa gracia, porque ¿qué provecho obtiene el hombre de todo el trabajo y la ansiedad del corazón si no somos ricos en lo que le importa a Dios?

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

Nuestra primera lectura habla de la insensatez de la vanidad y del trabajo mal dirigido. San Pablo escribe a los colosenses y les dice que no vuelvan a su antigua forma de vida, sino que busquen lo que es de arriba. En el Evangelio, Jesús le dice a la multitud que se cuiden de toda avaricia y luego relata la parábola del hombre necio rico.
