TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: God's love is like a raging fire!

In today's Gospel, Jesus outlines many of the ways in which his coming into the world will cause division, and not peace. He comes to set the earth on fire – not to destroy it, but to emblaze it with the fullness of God's love for us. The divisiveness arises not from Jesus himself, but from peoples' response to him: choosing either to build up that fire, or to tamp it down. Let us be those who feed the fire of the kingdom, not extinguish it.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Jeremiah is imprisoned under the authority of King Zedekiah because the people are upset by his words. But a court official convinces the king to release him. The writer of Hebrews challenges the community to rid [themselves] of every burden and sin and to keep their eyes fixed on Jesus. In the Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples he has come not to establish peace, but division.

ENFOQUE: ¡El amor de Dios es como un fuego furioso!

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús describe muchas de las formas en que su venida al mundo causará división, y no paz. Él viene para prender fuego a la tierra, no para destruirla, sino para cubrirla con la plenitud del amor de Dios por nosotros. La división no surge del mismo Jesús, sino de la respuesta de la gente: ya sea de quienes eligen aumentar ese fuego o para apagarlo. Seamos los que alimentamos el fuego del reino, no lo apagamos.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

Jeremías está preso bajo la autoridad del rey Sedequías porque la gente está molesta por sus palabras. Pero un funcionario de la corte convence al rey para que lo libere. El escritor de Hebreos desafía a la comunidad a deshacerse de toda carga y pecado y a mantener sus ojos fijos en Jesús. En el Evangelio, Jesús les dice a sus discípulos que no ha venido para establecer la paz, sino la división.
