TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: God comes to heal his people.

Looking at the world, there is no doubt about the need for healing. The people in the district of the Decapolis knew that the deaf man needed healing, and so they brought him to Jesus. As those who also know the healer – who know our Lord – let us bring our needs and those of others to him.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

In the first reading, the Lord says that he has come to save his people, including making the deaf hear and the blind see. In the second reading, James tells the Christian community not to show partiality to those who are rich, nor to discriminate against the poor. In the Gospel, Jesus heals a deaf man to the great astonishment of the crowd near the Decapolis.

ENFOQUE: Dios viene a sanar a su pueblo.

Mirando al mundo, no hay duda sobre la necesidad de sanarse. La gente del distrito de la Decápolis sabía que el sordo necesitaba ser sanado, por lo que lo llevaron a Jesús. Como aquellos que también conocen al sanador, nuestro Señor, llevemos nuestras necesidades y las de los demás ante él.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

En la primera lectura, el Señor dice que ha venido a salvar a su pueblo, incluso a hacer que los sordos oigan y los ciegos vean. En la segunda lectura, Santiago le dice a la comunidad cristiana que no muestre parcialidad hacia los ricos ni discrimine a los pobres. En el Evangelio, Jesús sana a un sordo, ante el gran asombro de la multitud cerca de la Decápolis.
