TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: To be a disciple we must carry our cross and follow him.

The cost of discipleship is real. To love Christ above family, self, possessions – this is difficult! And that is the cross we are to carry: the difficulty of prioritizing Christ when it would be easier not to. After all, what else is there? Only the cross. We carry our cross to become like the Master who carried his cross to death, victory and redemption.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

In our first reading we learn that knowing God's ways and plans comes only through the wisdom of the Holy Spirit. In today's epistle, Paul urges Philemon to be merciful to his runaway slave, who served Paul in prison, and accept him back not as a slave but a brother. In the Gospel Jesus tells the crowds what is required to be his disciple: placing discipleship above relationships, possessions and their own lives.

ENFOQUE: Para ser discípulos debemos llevar nuestra cruz y seguirlo.

El costo del discipulado es real. Amar a Cristo por encima de la familia, el yo, las posesiones, ¡esto es difícil! Esa es la cruz que debemos llevar: la dificultad de priorizar a Cristo cuando sería más fácil no hacerlo. Después de todo, ¿qué más hay? Sólo la cruz. Llevamos nuestra cruz para convertirnos en el Maestro que llevó su cruz a la muerte, la victoria y la redención.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

En nuestra primera lectura, aprendemos que conocer los caminos y planes de Dios viene solo a través de la sabiduría del Espíritu Santo. En la epístola de hoy, Pablo exhorta a Filemón a ser misericordioso con su esclavo fugitivo, que sirvió a Pablo en la cárcel, y que lo acepte no como esclavo sino como hermano. En el Evangelio, Jesús le dice a la multitud lo que se requiere para ser su discípulo: colocar el discipulado por encima de las relaciones, las posesiones y sus propias vidas.
