The feast of Our Lady of Sorrows commemorates the seven great sorrows which Mary lived in relation to Her Son, as they are recorded in the Gospels or through Tradition. Today we are invited to reflect on Mary's deep suffering:

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: We are all sons and daughters of our merciful Creator God.

God the Father shows remarkable mercy to us when we stray from following him. When we sin, we are called to repentance and to accept God's gracious mercy. By the same token, when others stray, we are to welcome them back with joy when they repent. We are all sons and daughters of the same merciful Father.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

In the first reading, Moses turns away God's wrath when the people of Israel create and worship a molten calf. Saint Paul, writing to Timothy, describes himself as the foremost of sinners – an example to others of God's merciful love. Jesus, in the Gospel, tells several parables to illustrate examples of God's mercy to sinners.

ENFOQUE: Todos somos hijos e hijas de nuestro misericordioso Dios Creador.

Dios Padre nos muestra una notable misericordia cuando nos apartamos de él. Cuando pecamos, somos llamados al arrepentimiento y a aceptar la misericordia de Dios. De la misma manera, cuando otros se alejan, debemos darles la bienvenida con alegría cuando se arrepienten. Todos somos hijos e hijas del mismo Padre misericordioso.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

En la primera lectura, Moisés aplaca la ira de Dios cuando el pueblo de Israel crea y adora a un becerro fundido. San Pablo, escribiéndole a Timoteo, se describe a sí mismo como el principal de los pecadores, un ejemplo para otros del amor misericordioso de Dios. Jesús, en el Evangelio, cuenta varias parábolas para ilustrar ejemplos de la misericordia de Dios hacia los pecadores.
