TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: Lay hold of eternal life by keeping the commandments, and pursuing noble goods.

The readings today are a challenge for all believers to consider the eternal consequences of our actions. God, in his infinite love, both calls us to himself and gives us the freedom to accept or reject his invitation. We can allow comfort to make us complacent, or we can pursue noble goods and be persuaded by the One who was raised from the dead.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

In the first reading from Amos, we hear a warning about comfort and wanton revelry leading to complacency, resulting in exile. Saint Paul writes to Timothy, instructing him to lay hold of eternal life by keeping the commandments and pursuing the goods such as love, righteousness and faith. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the rich man and Lazarus, who both receive what is just in eternal life.

ENFOQUE: Acerquémonos a la vida eterna guardando los mandamientos y persiguiendo bienes nobles.

Las lecturas de hoy son un desafío para que todos los creyentes consideren las consecuencias eternas de nuestras acciones. Dios, en su infinito amor, nos llama a sí mismo y nos da la libertad de aceptar o rechazar su invitación. Podemos permitir que la comodidad nos haga complacientes, o podemos buscar bienes nobles y ser persuadidos por Aquel que resucitó de entre los muertos.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

En la primera lectura de Amós, escuchamos una advertencia sobre la comodidad y la juega desenfrenada que conduce a la complacencia, lo que resulta en el exilio. San Pablo le escribe a Timoteo y le dice que persiga la vida eterna al guardar los mandamientos y buscar los bienes como el amor, la justicia y la fe. En el Evangelio, Jesús cuenta la parábola del hombre rico y Lázaro, quienes reciben lo que es justo en la vida eterna.
