THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: Prepare each day for the end of our earthly lives.

There is an ancient practice of reflection on mortality that goes as far back as Socrates: Memento Mori, or, Remember, thou art mortal. Today's Scriptures are perfect for the Christian spiritual practice of thinking about our life, and eventual death – a reminder that our ultimate goal in faith is to live with God after this life. Awareness of our own mortality should spur us to act righteously each day.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

At God's command, Jonah goes to Nineveh, prophesying destruction. The citizens of Nineveh repent and are spared. Saint Paul urges the Corinthians to act in a way that reflects the passing away of this world. In the Gospel, Jesus arrives in Galilee, proclaiming the time of fulfillment has arrived, and that all are to repent, and believe in the Gospel. The Apostles Simon, Andrew, James, and John leave their lives as fishermen to follow him.

ENFOQUE: Preparamos cada día para el final de nuestra vida terrenal.

Existe una antigua práctica de reflexión sobre la mortalidad que se remonta a Sócrates: Memento Mori, o Recuerda, eres mortal. Las Escrituras de hoy son perfectas para la práctica espiritual cristiana de pensar en nuestra vida y, finalmente, en la muerte, un recordatorio de que nuestro objetivo final en la fe es vivir con Dios después de esta vida. La conciencia de nuestra propia mortalidad debería impulsarnos a actuar con rectitud todos los días.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

Por orden de Dios, Jonás va a Nínive, profetizando destrucción. Los ciudadanos de Nínive se arrepienten y se salvan. San Pablo insta a los corintios a actuar de una manera que refleje que este mundo pasará. En el Evangelio, Jesús llega a Galilea, proclamando que ha llegado el momento del cumplimiento y que todos deben arrepentirse y creer en el Evangelio. Los apóstoles Simón, Andrés, Santiago y Juan dejan sus vidas como pescadores para seguirlo.

Thank you for your generous gifts to the Lord and your support of the Church.

“He first found his own brother Simon and told him, “We have found the Messiah”—which is translated Christ—. Then he brought him to Jesus.: (John 1:41-42). “As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; Jesus said to them, “come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.” (Mark 1:16-18)

The example set by Andrew and Jesus is the best way to make disciples—A personal invitation is extended to any single Catholic men between the ages of 18 and 50 who are actively engaged in their parishes. If they are slightly older than 50, we evaluate them on a case-by-case basis. There is no obligation or commitment and there is no cost to attend the vocation discernment weekend. Due to the pandemic, this year's discernment weekend is easier that ever to attend. The entire weekend will be online. There will be times for presentations, prayer, reflection and individual interviews with Archbishop Wester. The dates are January 29th-31st, 2021. Registration is available online on the Archdioceses of Santa Fe website. Click on vocations and then click on priestly vocations.
