Thanksgiving Prayer

Heavenly Creator,
In this season of gratitude and abundance, we give You thanks for our many blessings as we pray for all who struggle with hunger and want. Be with them in the dark of night, when all hope seems lost. Keep their faith strong as they await relief. Let Your goodness flow throughout our hearts and hands as we reach out to one another in the full, true joy of Thanksgiving in Christ.

Amen

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

FOCUS: Christ's dominion is eternal.

Today's solemnity, by which we close the liturgical year, reminds us that Christ is king and ruler of all. He is the firstborn of the dead in whom all power and authority has been invested. By our baptism we share in that holy and royal identity so that we might witness to his glory and kingship before the world.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Daniel has a vision of one like a Son of Man coming, on the clouds of heaven, receiving dominion and kingship over all creation. In the second reading, John writes of Jesus Christ as the faithful witness who is coming amid the clouds. In the Gospel, Pilate asks Jesus if he is the King of the Jews, and Jesus responds, my kingdom does not belong to this world.

ENFOQUE: El dominio de Cristo es eterno.

La solemnidad de hoy, por la que cerramos el año litúrgico, nos recuerda que Cristo es rey y gobernante de todos. Él es el primogénito de entre los muertos a quien todo poder y autoridad le han sido dados. Por nuestro bautismo compartimos esa identidad santa y real que podamos dar testimonio de su gloria y reinado ante el mundo.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

Daniel tiene una visión de uno como un Hijo del Hombre que viene, en las nubes del cielo, recibiendo el dominio y la realeza sobre toda la creación. En la segunda lectura, Juan escribe de Jesucristo como el testigo fiel que viene en medio de las nubes. En el Evangelio, Pilato le pregunta a Jesús si él es el Rey de los Judíos, y Jesús responde, mi reino no pertenece a este mundo.
