“Prayer is the foundation of all that we do in defense of human life. Our efforts—whether educational, pastoral, or legislative—will be less than fully fruitful if we do not change hearts and if we do not ourselves overcome our own spiritual blindness. Only with prayer-prayer that storms the heavens for justice and mercy, prayer that cleanses our hearts and our souls—will the culture of death that surrounds us today be replaced with a culture of life.”

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: Jesus came to fulfill the law so that heaven could be opened to the righteous.

Jesus' teachings are not primarily about the joys and easiness of the Christian life, but rather about the commandments that our loving Father gives to us for our freedom and good. He, who is perfect love, made us in love and sent his Son out of love to teach us what it means to partake in his life – both here and forever.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

In the first reading, Sirach tells the people they can choose to follow the commandments, or not. But keeping the commandments will save them. In Saint Paul's Letter to the Corinthians, he writes of the greatness prepared for those who love God. In the Gospel from Matthew, Jesus teaches about the law. He says that he has come to fulfil the law, and that those who keep it will be called the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

ENFOQUE: Jesús vino a cumplir la ley para que el Cielo se abriera a los justos.

Las enseñanzas de Jesús no son principalmente sobre las alegrías y la facilidad de la vida cristiana, sino más bien sobre los mandamientos que nuestro amoroso Padre nos da para nuestra libertad y bien. Él, que es amor perfecto, nos hizo en el amor y envió a su Hijo por amor para que nos enseñe lo que significa participar en su vida, tanto aquí como para siempre.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

En la primera lectura, Sirac les dice a las personas que pueden elegir seguir los mandamientos o no. Pero guardar los mandamientos los salvará. En la Carta de San Pablo a los Corintios, escribe sobre la grandeza preparada para los que aman a Dios. En el Evangelio de Mateo, Jesús enseña acerca de la ley. Él dice que ha venido a cumplir la ley, y que aquellos que la cumplan serán llamados los más grandes en el reino de los Cielos.
