SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER (DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY)

FOCUS: We are reconciled to God, in his Divine Mercy, through his Son.

The Church continues to celebrate and give thanks for the mystery of the Resurrection. God has anointed his only Son as our Savior and Redeemer. So with hearts full of hope, joy, and faith, let us be reconciled to God in his Divine Mercy and share that mercy with the world.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Saint Luke describes the early Christian community, as they devoted themselves to prayer, the communal life ... [and] ... the breaking of bread. Peter's Letter stresses the living hope that believers now have through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. In John's Gospel, the resurrected Jesus appears to his disciples, saying, Peace be with you and showing them his wounds. He breathes on them, and says, receive the Holy Spirit and grants them the authority to forgive sins. Later, he convinces Thomas of the truth of the Resurrection.

ENFOQUE: Estamos reconciliados con Dios, en su Divina Misericordia, a través de su Hijo.

La Iglesia continúa celebrando y dando gracias por el misterio de la Resurrección. Dios ha ungido a su único Hijo como nuestro Salvador y Redentor. Entonces, con corazones llenos de esperanza, alegría y fe, reconciliémonos con Dios en su Divina Misericordia y compartamos esa misericordia con el mundo.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

San Lucas describe a la comunidad cristiana primitiva, ya que se dedicaron a la oración, la vida comunitaria y la partición del pan. La carta de Pedro enfatiza la esperanza viva que los creyentes tienen ahora a través de la resurrección de Jesucristo de la muerte. En el Evangelio de Juan, Jesús resucitado se aparece a sus discípulos, diciendo: La paz sea con ustedes y mostrándoles sus heridas. Él respira sobre ellos y dice, reciben el Espíritu Santo y les otorga la autoridad para perdonar los pecados. Más tarde, convence a Tomás de la verdad de la resurrección.

Veterans Urged to Contact Their Local County Assessors For Any Property Tax Deadlines

SANTA FE--Due to the ongoing COVID-19 public health emergency, some counties in New Mexico may have extended the filing deadline for property taxes.

Therefore, the New Mexico Department of Veterans Services (DVS) is urging veterans and unmarried, surviving spouses of veterans who own homes to check with their county assessor's office for property tax deadlines--and applying for the Veteran Property Tax Exemption.

For your convenience, a contact list of county assessors has been provided at the bottom.

Applying for the Veteran Property Tax Exemption

Veterans and unmarried, surviving spouses of veterans who are residents of New Mexico are eligible for the Veteran Property Tax Exemption—which is a $4,000 reduction of the taxable value of their primary residence. When filing for this exemption, the veteran or the unmarried, surviving spouse of a veteran must present a Veterans State Property Tax Exemption Certificate to verify eligibility. Veterans with a 100% service-connected disability rating are eligible to have their entire property tax liability waived.

During the current public health emergency, those who are eligible to receive the exemption can easily file for this Certificate by submitting an application and supporting documents, via mail or fax, to the DVS administrative office in Santa Fe. A copy of the application can be found at the DVS website, www.dvs.nm.gov, by clicking on the "Forms" tab at the top of the home page, and then clicking on the "Property Tax Exemption" link at the top.

Completed forms and supporting documents may be mailed to:

The New Mexico Department of Veterans Services
ATTN: STATE BENEFITS
407 Galisteo St./Room #134
Santa Fe, NM 87501

Completed forms and supporting documents can be also FAX 'ed to: (505) 827-6336. DVS will return the certificate and the supporting documents to the requestor.

For questions, call DVS toll-free at 1-(866) 433-8387,
