The Story of Our Lady of Sorrows

For a while there were two feasts in honor of the Sorrowful Mother: one going back to the 15th century, the other to the 17th century. For a while both were celebrated by the universal Church: one on the Friday before Palm Sunday, the other in September.

The principal biblical references to Mary's sorrows are in Luke 2:35 and John 19:26-27. The Lucan passage is Simeon's prediction about a sword piercing Mary's soul; the Johannine passage relates Jesus' words from the cross to Mary and to the beloved disciple.

Many early Church writers interpret the sword as Mary's sorrows, especially as she saw Jesus die on the cross. Thus, the two passages are brought together as prediction and fulfillment.

Saint Ambrose in particular sees Mary as a sorrowful yet powerful figure at the cross. Mary stood fearlessly at the cross while others fled. Mary looked on her Son's wounds with pity, but saw in them the salvation of the world. As Jesus hung on the cross, Mary did not fear to be killed, but offered herself to her persecutors.

Reflection

John's account of Jesus' death is highly symbolic. When Jesus gives the beloved disciple to Mary, we are invited to appreciate Mary's role in the Church: She symbolizes the Church; the beloved disciple represents all believers. As Mary mothered Jesus, she is now mother to all his followers. Furthermore, as Jesus died, he handed over his Spirit. Mary and the Spirit cooperate in begetting new children of God—almost an echo of Luke's account of Jesus' conception. Christians can trust that they will continue to experience the caring presence of Mary and Jesus' Spirit throughout their lives and throughout history.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: Forgiveness is a choice that leads to life.

Life always offers us choices – will we hold onto anger or choose to forgive? Will we live with a spirit of compassion or withhold mercy? Will we hold onto hurts and grievances or extend a hand in peace? Living out the commands of God is no easy task, but if we show mercy and forgiveness to others, we are assured of the same from our heavenly Father.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Sirach tells the people, Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. Thus, they are to forgive their neighbor as they wish to be forgiven by the Lord. Paul tells the Romans, None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord. In the Gospel, Jesus answers Peter's question of how often he must forgive by telling him the parable of the unforgiving servant.

ENFOQUE: El perdón es una decisión que lleva a la vida.

La vida siempre nos ofrece opciones: ¿Nos aferraremos a la ira o elegiremos perdonar? ¿Viviremos con un espíritu de compasión o no tendremos misericordia? ¿Nos aferraremos a las heridas y quejas o extenderemos una mano en paz? Vivir los mandamientos de Dios no es tarea fácil, pero si mostramos misericordia y perdón a los demás, nuestro Padre celestial nos asegura lo mismo.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

Sirácida le dice al pueblo, Rencor y cólera, ambos son detestables, y el hombre pecador los tendrá dentro. Por consiguiente, deben perdonar a su prójimo como desean ser perdonados por el Señor. Pablo les dice a los romanos: Ninguno de nosotros vive para sí mismo, y ninguno muere para sí mismo. Pues si vivimos, para el Señor vivimos. En el Evangelio, Jesús responde a la pregunta de Pedro de con qué frecuencia debe perdonar al contarle la parábola del siervo malo.

For the month of September, we at the Archdiocese of Santa Fe Youth, Young Adult and Campus Ministry Office want to invite you; youth, youth ministers, young adults, young adult ministers and all of the parishioners at your parish to reach out to your local Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Brothers of the Good Shepperd in Albuquerque and other charities in your area.

As Catholics we are called to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, visit the sick, visit the prisoners, bury the dead and give alms to the poor.

We understand that we are in a pandemic and that danger is evident but as Catholics we are called to serve and that is what we must do. Whether it is by donating money, items or time does not matter. This is an excellent time to practice the Corporal Works of Mercy.

The Corporal Works of Mercy are found in the teachings of Jesus and give us a model for how we should treat all others, as if they were Christ in disguise. They "are charitable actions by which we help our neighbors in their bodily needs" (USCCA). They respond to the basic needs of humanity as we journey together through this life.

We encourage you to get in touch with your local St. Vincent de Paul. Look on the charities website to see how you can donate money. Brothers of the Good Shepherd in Albuquerque need the following items:

- Men's Undergarments (i.e. boxer's or boxer briefs)
- Toothbrushes
- Toothpaste (NO mouth wash)
- Men's clothing-gently used (i.e. shirts, pants, jacket's) This is a great opportunity to clean out your closets!
- Men's Shoes-gently used (i.e. sneakers of any size)

They are located on: 218 Iron Ave SW, Albuquerque, NM 87102. Please call them at (505) 243-2527, in order to drop off items. They have asked us to tell you that it does not matter the time, they only ask to call ahead so they can have someone ready to receive the items.

We thank you for coming together in doing this and helping those that are much in need.

Note: Items that are donated could be new or gently used but they must to be clean.

From Archbishop Wester

Whether we experience the Eucharistic Celebration from a pew or a screen, it is important for all to remember that we remain the Holy People of God, called to value and protect all of human life and to respond to the needs of others with compassion. May our witness during this time be one that mirrors our belief in Christ and our call to love our neighbor as ourselves. -Archbishop John Wester

Por el Arzobispo Wester

"Ya sea que vivamos la Celebración Eucarística desde la banca de la Iglesia o por televisión, es importante recordar que continuamos siendo al Pueblo Santo de Dios, llamado a valorar y proteger toda vida humana y a responder a las necesidades de los demás con compasión. Que nuestro testimonio durante este tiempo sea uno que refleje nuestra fe en Cristo y el amar a nuestro prójimo como a nosotros mismos". - Arzobispo John Wester
