TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: God's love and mercy are never-ending.

Isaiah advises us to seek the Lord, an activity we might think of as being complete as soon as we come to believe in him. But really, this is an invitation to grace – a grace that is constant, always available, and generous in its forgiveness. It is a promise of deep and perpetual care by a God who is completely different from us in his thoughts and ways, and yet never-ending in his love and mercy.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Isaiah encourages his people to seek the Lord and ask for his mercy – God whose thoughts are so far above their own. Saint Paul tells the Philippians that Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. And though Paul longs to be with Jesus in the next life, it is better that he remains with them. In the Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about workers in a vineyard, emphasizing the generosity of the landowner to all who labored.

ENFOQUE: El amor y la misericordia de Dios son interminables.

Isaías nos aconseja que [busquemos] al Señor, una actividad que podríamos considerar como completa tan pronto como lleguemos a creer en él. Pero realmente, esta es una invitación a la gracia, una gracia que es constante, siempre disponible y generosa al perdonar. Es una promesa de un cuidado profundo y perpetuo por parte de un Dios que es completamente diferente de nosotros en sus pensamientos y formas, pero aun así es infinito en su amor y misericordia.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

Isaías anima a su pueblo a [buscar] al Señor y pedirle su misericordia, a Dios cuyos pensamientos están muy por encima de los todos. San Pablo les dice a los filipenses que Cristo será exaltado en mi cuerpo, ya sea por vida o por muerte. Y aunque Pablo anhela estar con Jesús en la próxima vida, es mejor que permanezca con ellos. En el Evangelio, Jesús cuenta una parábola sobre los obreros de la viña, enfatizando la generosidad del dueño de la casa a todos quienes trabajaron.

“Throughout salvation history, God has welcomed repentant sinners with special joy. Jesus concludes the parable of the lost sheep with these words: ‘there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance’ (Lk15:7)*.”

“A lo largo de la historia de salvación, Dios ha recibido a los pecadores arrepentidos con especial alegría. Jesús concluye la parábola de la oveja perdida con estas palabras: "habrá más alegría en el cielo por un solo pecador que vuelve a Dios que por noventa y nueve justos que no tienen necesidad de convertirse" (Lucas 15,7).
