

The Arm of the Lord - Study Resource

This companion study is designed for personal reflection, small group discussion, or journaling. It draws from the original blog post 'When I Thought It Said Arm - And Found Jesus Instead' and explores the powerful imagery of God's arm in Scripture.

Journaling Prompts

1. Think of a time when someone seemed 'too far gone' to be saved. What did you believe about God's power in that moment?
2. What is the difference between God's 'hand' and His 'arm' in Scripture? How do these metaphors help you understand His character?
3. Isaiah 59:16 says, 'His own arm brought salvation.' Reflect on what this means in light of the gospel and your personal walk with Christ.
4. How has God 'reached' into your own life in a way you didn't expect?
5. Write a prayer of thanks or petition using Isaiah 59:1 as your guide.
