Customer Guidelines

Shippers & Freight Forwarders

We provide end-to-end drayage services, ensuring efficient and reliable cargo movement across key U.S. ports. Our team is committed to seamless coordination, real-time tracking, and operational excellence to support your logistics needs.

Brokers

Costa Freight operates as a dispatching service, offering administrative and sales support to asset-based owner-operators and carriers.

Key Billing & Payment Terms for Brokers:

- Payment terms and billing must follow factoring service guidelines.
- Onboarding and payments are the sole responsibility of the service provider company and the broker.
- Unless Costa Freight is listed as a vendor, we cannot be held responsible for terms and conditions.

Our Role

While Costa Freight is not responsible for payment processing unless listed as a vendor, we are actively involved in operations, ensuring smooth communication and support throughout the process.

Are We Responsible for Receiving Your Order?

✓ Yes, absolutely! We handle your drayage operations with full commitment. However, if we are not listed as a vendor, we are not financially responsible for the load.
