- Provide stud service if the Dam does not become pregnant or has less than two puppies. Dam owner must provide proof from a licensed veterinarian within 90 days of breeding (tie/AI).

Dam owner agrees to the following:

- Provide health testing certificates and records.
- Assure that the dam is in good health at the time of breeding.
- Provide a negative brucellosis test at least 30 days prior the time of breeding, unless dam hasn't been bred or an exception has been made.
- Pay the stud fee before the breeding or collection takes place. Can be paid Cash or through Zelle.
- Notify the Stud owner if pregnancy failed.
- Dam owner understands that she will cover ANY and ALL with any cost related to artificial insemination, such as office calls, collections, shipping, etc. including the stud fee. All expenses will be paid to whomever asks for them including stud owner, vet, etc. .
- Dam will also be required to pay any expense from the stud owner going more than 50 miles to meet the dam owner either for picking up or dropping off the dam.
- Notify Stud owner if pregnancy didn't take place.
- If a failed pregnancy occurs, the dam owner is required to show progesterone test and proof of a veterinary exam by a licensed veterinarian stating that there isn't any reason why the dam didn't get pregnant.
- Dam owner won't have to repay a deposit again if pregnancy fails but would still have to pay the remaining amount of the stud fee once puppies are born.
- Any reference to contracted stud on website or social media must state that "Mountain Tails " is the Stud owner.
- Dam owners understand that stud does not control viable pregnancy or amount of puppy in a litter.
- Dam owner understands that Stud owner will do everything in their power to ensure pregnancy.
- Dam owners understand that the remaining balance must be paid prior to the registration of puppies and a week after their birth.
- If after a failed pregnancy, Dam is bred again and results in another failed pregnancy the contract is considered fulfilled and no refund is given.
- Dam owner understands that breeding would take place at the Stud owner's place. Dam owner must bring food, food bowls, and crate for the staying of the dam to be as comfortable as possible.

- Dam owner understands that the dam should be protected from any intact male before and after breeding.
- Dam owners understand that for hybrids the remaining fee must be paid within a week of puppies being born.
- Puppies will be sold under limited registration(no breeding rights).
- If Dam owner desires to keep a puppy for breeding and stud owner approves such puppy must reach the age of 1 yr (male) or 18+ months(female) and have gone through at least two heat cycles. Puppy must complete a genetic test through Embark or similar prior through breeding and have OFA testing (minimum of hips and elbows/prelims are accepted)
- By signing this contract the Dam owner agrees to all of the above and below.
