Liturgy of the Word

- Exodus 34:4b–6, 8–9 The Lord is merciful and gracious.
- Daniel 3 “Glory and praise for ever!”
- 2 Corinthians 13:11–13 Encourage one another and live in peace.
- John 3:16–18 God sent his only Son into the world to bring us life.

God’s love for us comes across vividly in today’s readings. God promises Moses to be merciful, gracious, and rich in kindness. Paul tells the Corinthians that the God of love and peace will be with them as they treat each other with love and live in peace. John points out that Christ’s sacrifice on the cross is a vivid sign of God’s great love for us. Let us listen to God’s word with grateful hearts.

Pastor's Reflection

I'm always most comfortable and at peace on a lone country road or a trail deep in the woods. I don't think I'm alone in that. A path in front of us, leading to the unknown can stir hearts and souls. In fact, roads, highways and trails are often central to a good story plot (think of Lord of the Rings). Even Jesus in the Gospels is often depicted as traveling with his disciples from one town to the next along a road. We celebrate famous trails and roads such as the Appalachian trail or Hwy. 66. This fascination is probably rooted in the road's ability to serve as a metaphor for life. Sometimes the road is smooth and sometimes it's rough. Sometimes it's straight with a clear view of what's ahead and other times so winding that we can't see what might be around the bend. No matter what, the road always beckons us forward. Sometimes we move with confidence and courage and at other times with wariness and fear. But the road always tells us "Keep moving; just put one foot in front of the other." The road doesn't care how fast we are going, only that we are moving, even with baby steps. Our faith tells us that we are never alone as we keep moving forward, and when things are at their worst, we can trust that God carries us for a bit, until we are ready to move on our own. We also have our friends and family who can walk with us, but when we feel abandoned, we can always trust in God's presence as he guides us into his eternal presence.
Fr. Larry
