Liturgy of the Word

- Acts 6:1–7 They chose Stephen.
- Psalm 33 "Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you."
- 1 Peter 2:4–9 "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone."
- John 14:1–12 "I am the way and the truth and the life."

A challenging issue we face today was also faced by the early church: not enough ministers to serve all the people. We hear in the first reading that the Twelve needed more disciples willing to bring food to the needy. Peter uses the image of living stones to describe the spiritual house that is the growing church, with Christ as the cornerstone. Jesus tells his disciples of our lasting spiritual house in heaven with the Father. May the words we hear of our spiritual homes on earth and in heaven inspire us this Easter season.

Pastor's Reflection

St. Therese of Lisieux had a saying that to pick a pin up off the floor with love can save more souls than the greatest missionary sermon. It's a great reminder to us that we don't need to do great things as defined by the world. We simply do our best with whatever we are doing and then do it with love. This, she reminds us, is not only pleasing to God but is a grace-filled action that can help others.

As I reflect on the outpouring of love we saw at Ed Mattingly's funeral on Monday, I'm reminded of St. Therese, but I'm also reminded of what a blessing this parish is. So many of you stepped up to help and you did so with love. The deep care, concern, and love was palpable and provided a healing balm for the family and friends of Ed. What I witnessed is not usual in our world today, and I feel very blessed to be a part of it.

Over the last weeks, these bulletin reflections have been about Catholic Social Teaching. Everyday, in this parish, we see the principles of CST in action, and never more than this past Monday. Thank you!

Fr. Larry.
