Liturgy of the Word

- Acts 2:1–11 As on Sinai, the Lord descends in fire and wind.
- Psalm 104 "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth."
- 1 Corinthians 12:3b–7, The Spirit calls the baptized to ministry 12–13 for the common good.
- John 20:19–23 On the first day of the week the risen Christ imparts the Holy Spirit.

Today we hear two versions of how the Holy Spirit came upon the apostles. From Acts, we hear the Pentecost event, when the Holy Spirit descended in a maelstrom of wind and fire and enabled the apostles to speak in languages from around the world. In John's Gospel, Jesus gently breathes upon the disciples, imparting peace and the Holy Spirit upon them. Paul writes of the spiritual gifts the Holy Spirit brings. The responsorial psalm and sequence invite us to call out for the Holy Spirit, who indeed renews the earth and all of us on the face of it.

Pastor's
Reflection

This Sunday we celebrate the great Feast of Pentecost, commemorating the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples and apostles of the Lord. Jesus had been promising that he would send an advocate after he returned to the Father. The Holy Spirit as the Advocate empowered the disciples to take the message of Jesus to all who would hear. They were literally called to spend the rest of their lives outside of their "comfort zone," and were able to do so because of the grace given them in the gift of the Holy Spirit. We share that same Spirit by virtue of Baptism and the sacrament of Confirmation.

Today's Feast reminds us that the Christian faith is ultimately directed beyond us. While we certainly look inward in our prayer, we do so to connect with the power of God within us so that we can then live the Gospel outwardly, sharing that Good News with everyone we encounter. We don't have to do this with words or great feats, just with love, compassion, and mercy. When we do so, the power of God's Spirit within us touches lives in ways we don't even realize. That extra smile, helping hand, or understanding support extend God's Kingdom, even when we aren't aware.

All this is possible because of the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. Saint Paul reminds us that we are temples of the Holy Spirit. We carry God with us, wherever we go. Saint Paul also gives us a great way of discerning God's Spirit in our actions. These Fruits of the Holy Spirit remind us of what we should strive for and help us to see when the Spirit is active in our lives. They are: Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Faithfulness, Gentleness, and Self-Control. Notice how these are all directed outward. And, while none of us is perfect in these, we can tap into the power of God within us to bring these gifts to greater fruition.

God Bless you!

Fr. Larry
