Liturgy of the Word

- Ezekiel 18:25–28 Turn away from sin and live!
- Psalm 25 “Remember your mercies, O Lord.”
- Philippians 2:1–11 Christ became obedient even to the point of death.
  or 2:1–5
- Matthew 21:28–32 The one who obeys the Lord, even reluctantly,is the one who does the will of the Father.

In today’s first reading, Ezekiel vividly contrasts the eventual fates of a virtuous person who turns belatedly to sin and a wicked person who turns away from sin to do what is right and just. In the same vein, Jesus presents two sons, one of whom promises obedience, but fails to follow through, while the other responds defiantly, but then has a change of heart. As we listen to God’s word, let us ask ourselves where we often fall and how we can do better.

Food Pantry Needs
To keep our food pantry fully supplied, a list of currently needed items will be published in the bulletin periodically. Pastor's Reflection

This weekend we celebrate an important event in the life of our parish—the 15th anniversary of the arrival of our Myanmar Catholic brothers and sisters as members of our community. Not only are we celebrating our Myanmar friends and their contributions to our parish life, we are also remembering the members of our parish who welcomed these newcomers into our parish and assisted them with the difficult task of integrating into a new culture.

You have been a great example of the Old Testament admonition to welcome the stranger. In the book of Leviticus, we read: "The foreigner residing among you must be treated as your native-born. Love them as yourself, for you were foreigners in Egypt. I am the LORD your God." (19:34) This value, repeated many times in the Scriptures, is rooted in the call of Jesus to love one another as we've been loved. As a parish, you have lived this call in a generous and faithful way.

We also celebrate the contributions of the Myanmar community to our parish. They've enhanced our liturgies with their music and dedicated their time and talents to many of our parish ministries. Their community inspires us in their devotion to family and especially in their commitment to Catholic education, whether in our Catholic Schools or our Religious Education program.

For all these reasons, and many more, we celebrate this weekend 15 years of Myanmar ministry in our parish. If you are reading this before the Mass on Sunday at 2pm, please come by, even if you've already been to Mass. The meal is at 3pm and open to all parishioners. Please join us with our Bishop to celebrate one important way that we have been "A Light Shining From the Hilltop."
