Liturgy of the Word

- Revelation 7:2–4, 9–14 Dressed in white, bearing palm branches, the saints rejoice in the heavenly liturgy.
- Psalm 24 “Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.”
- 1 John 3:1–3 We shall be like God.
- Matthew 5:1–12a Jesus unfolds the blueprint of the kingdom.

On the Solemnity of All Saints, our readings look ahead to the day when we hope to join God and all the saints in the heavenly kingdom. What will that day look like? Will we be part of a great multitude standing before the throne of the Lamb? What or whom will we see in the face of God? Will we each be like God? Jesus, who knew well the blessings of heaven, promised his disciples that those who here on earth are poor in spirit, or mournful, or clean of heart, or are persecuted, will one day see that reward. Let us treasure this sweet hope as we listen to God’s word.

Franciscan Jubilee Living Lectio Day Pilgrimage

We are daily pilgrims in this foreign land. Come embark on an intentional pilgrimage as we encounter Christ through our own life's journey, the life of St. Francis of Assisi, and the parish of St. Francis of Assisi in celebration of the 800th anniversary of his passing into eternal life this special jubilee year.

Each moment/encounter of our earthly pilgrimage can open us to a deeper awareness of Christ and the Holy Spirit's presence in creation, others, and self. Come slow down, reflect, and experience a formational transformation.

Questions contact Robin Murphey, pilgrimage facilitator/St. Meinrad alum, @ asimplesmilejourney@gmail.com.

Pastor's Reflection

Thank you to Fr. Martin for covering the pastor's reflection over the last couple of weeks. He did a great job. I'm glad to be back but also grateful that I had a relaxing and spiritually renewing time away. There's a lot going on this week. Today is the Feast of All Saints and on Monday the Feast of All Souls. Both days remind us that our true home is in eternity with our loving God and all those who have gone before us, whether they are fully alive in heaven or continuing their purification to holiness in purgatory.

Also, this week is the monthly celebration of First Friday and First Saturday. On the first Friday of every month, we honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus and on First Saturday we draw closer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Many Catholics make an extra effort to receive communion on these days, make a good confession, and renew their devotion to the Eucharist. This parish has a strong connection to these days as we have several special events to help our folks take advantage of the special blessings of these days.

Every First Friday we begin the day with confessions at 6:30, Mass at 8am with the opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick. After Mass, the Eucharist is exposed on the Altar for the day. Around 5:45, we have prayers and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament to close out the day of adoration. Fr. Martin and I also visit the homebound on this day to offer communion and other sacraments.

Every First Saturday we also have Mass at 8am. This is the only Saturday in the month when we have Mass in the morning. It is a great way to honor Our Blessed Mother.

Which brings us back to the Feast of All Souls. During the first eight days of November (Octave), you can gain a plenary indulgence each day for anyone who passed away to help them on their journey to God. You can do this by visiting a cemetery, church or chapel and offering a prayer for the departed. Coming to adoration on Friday, even if just for a short visit, is a great way to remember a loved one and join with them in your prayer before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.
